U.S. Training Of Communist Airmen Draws Sharp Protests

Dutch, Soviet Union Expel High Envoys

Action Is Taken After Brawl In Defection Case

THE HAGUE (UPI) — The Netherlands Friday officially expelled Soviet Ambassador P. K. Ponomarenko for his part in an airport brawl with Dutch police. Russia retaliated immediately by ousting the Dutch ambassador to Moscow.

The Dutch action declaring Ponomarenko "persona non grata" —not acceptable—came as two other Soviet officials were leaving for Moscow after being expelled in a crisis growing out of the defection of Soviet scientist Alexei Golub.

DENOUNCE ACTION

Moscow angrily denounced the Dutch action and said it "does not deem" it possible for Dutch Ambassador Henry A. Helb to remain in Moscow as ambassador. In diplomatic language that meant he had to leave.

Ponomarenko returned to Moscow by plane Friday one jump ahead of the expulsion order. It had been expected since he led nine other first-swinging Soviet officials into a police station at Schiphol airfield outside Amsterdam Monday night.

Golub defected to the West while visiting Amsterdam as a tourist. His wife, after wavering, went to the airport with the other Russian tourists. Dutch authorities took her passport and were preparing to ask her if she was returning of her own free will when Ponomarenko led the assault on the nose by a Dutch policeman during the fist fight. When the incident was over and after the Golubs talked it over in front of Ponomarenko and Netherlands authorities, Mrs. Golub decided to return to Moscow.

The Soviet Embassy announced at a press conference the following day that Golub had been "kidnaped" by the Dutch; the Dutch called their own press conference that night and Golub told a group of newsmen he had chosen freedom of his own volition.

The Dutch government in expelling the two lesser Soviet officials Friday, said they used violence against Dutch police and later uttered slanderous statements against the government.

The two who left aboard the train Friday with 20 suitcases were trade attache Shibaev and second embassy Secretary A. D. Popov. Both were involved with Ponomarenko in the airport fist fight; Holland also charged that Popov slandered the government by saying Golub was kidnaped and subjected to third degree methods.

Syria Regains Seat In U.N.: No Objection

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Syria was readmitted to the United Nations Friday, raising the world organization's membership total to 101. Two Syrian representatives took their seats in the General Assembly without formalities under an arrangement worked out in advance.

During the morning session, assembly President Mongi Slim had announced he would seat the Syrians during the afternoon meeting if there was no objection. He said informal talks had disclosed no opposition. New members normally must be approved first by the Security Council, but Syria's application for readmission was without precedent.

No objection was raised by the United Arab Republic, which was composed of Egypt and Syria until Syria broke away last month.

U.S. Protests Berlin Bullets

BERLIN (AP) — In a sharp protest Friday to Soviet officials, the U.S. Command warned "against the consequences of the reckless and illegal conduct" of East German border guards, a spokesman said.

The guards earlier in the day poured round after round of machinegun and rifle fire into Berlin's American sector when nine truck-borne refugees broke through the Communist fence.

None of the U.S. military and West Berlin police who rushed to the wooded scene was reported hurt in the hour-long shooting in early morning half-light. They did not return the fire.

DELIVERS PROTEST

Gen. Albert Watson II, the U.S. commandant in Berlin, drove to Soviet headquarters at Karlshorst in East Berlin to deliver the protest to the Soviet commandant, Col. A. I. Solovyev.

The American spokesman said Watson "warned against the consequences of the reckless and illegal conduct of the Vopos (East German People's Police). Gen. Watson also protested to the Soviets about other flagrant incidents which recently affected the peace and security of the American sector," the spokesman said.

He added that the protest led to a back-and-forth discussion between Watson and Solovyev, but he gave no indication of the Russian's reaction.

The Western allies do not recognize East Germany's Communist regime and deal only with the Soviets in matters involving the East German police. Soviet officials usually refer such protests to the East Germans and take no other action.

East German police again opened fire in the evening when two East Berliners fled into the French sector near Bernauerstrasse. West Berlin officials said the two escaped unhurt across railroad sidings near the border. East German guards stopped firing as soon as the pair had

U.S. Grounds All Civilian Aircraft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Military jets will zoom through the skies in vast numbers Saturday in the biggest test yet of North America's defenses. During the 12 hours of the test civilian aircraft are ordered to stay on the ground.

It will be a mock war without shooting. But the attacking B52s and B47s will hurl themselves against key U.S. and Canadian targets in as realistic a fashion otherwise as possible in this operation called Sky Shield.

This will set into motion the vast defense network—interceptor aircraft, antiaircraft missile stations and supporting stations. They're supposed to react as if it were the real thing, except no triggers are to be pulled.

N.O. Club Rejects Soviet As Speaker

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Young Men's Business Club of Greater New Orleans Friday said it refused to have a Soviet embassy secretary as a guest speaker because the Communist government "cannot speak for those whom they govern by force."

"It is basic common sense that you do not invite into your house as a luncheon guest a person who has vowed to burn down your house or who has murdered your brother," the YMBC said.

The rejected Russian was Gennardi V. Gavrikov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

The YMBC said Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La., requested that the business club have Gavrikov as a guest speaker.

The YMBC program chairman made arrangements to have him speak, but the YMBC board later refused to let the Russian secretary speak when it learned of the selection.

The YMBC said Rep. Edward Hebert, D-La., interceded on behalf of Gavrikov but to no avail. On Wednesday, Hebert criticized the YMBC for its action.

The board of directors, in explaining its reason for rejection, said hand-shaking photos would have been distributed "as false proof of the sympathy of the American business man for the communist program for world domination."

The YMBC added:

"The henchmen of the Communist dictatorship represent only three per cent of the Russian people and therefore cannot speak for those whom they govern by force."

One Of 10 Most Sought Fugitives Brags Of Killings

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — The FBI Friday night announced the arrest of Hugh Bion Morse, one of its 10 most wanted criminals. FBI agents said Morse boasted of killing three women, one in St. Paul.

Morse, carrying a loaded .25-caliber pistol, was arrested in a St. Paul rooming house. The FBI said he bragged of killing two other women in Spokane, Wash.

CONFESSES SLAYING

Agents said he had confessed the slaying here Sept. 19 of Carol Ronan, 34, a social worker found beaten, strangled and raped in her apartment. Miss Ronan lived alone.

Morse's arrest was announced first at Washington by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Hoover said Morse also claimed he had committed a number of burglaries in the St. Paul area recently.

Morse, described by the FBI as a sex deviate, has been confined to mental hospitals previously.

A federal warrant was issued in Los Angeles on Feb. 16, 1961, charging Morse with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for burglary, and assault to commit murder.

Morse had allegedly entered the Reseda, Calif., home of his estranged wife on Oct. 28, 1960, and attempted to strangle her.

He was interrupted by his mother-in-law, and fled the house.

Hoover said Morse has been previously convicted for indecent exposure and for burglary.

Morse was born in Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 9, 1930. He will be arraigned in St. Paul. A date has not yet been set.

U.S. Fires Discoverer Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — A Discoverer satellite — a space-age oldtimer carrying the newest in experimental gear — streaked into orbit over the poles Friday.

Inside the nose of the 25-foot-long satellite was the usual capsule which scientists will try to recover over the Pacific from one to four days after launch.

The Air Force announced two hours after the launch — the 100th perfect firing of the Thor missile, which is used on Discoverer as the booster stage — that the 2,100 pound satellite was in orbit.

Experiments aboard the 32nd in the long-range Discoverer series were planned "to assist engineers in design of advanced space vehicles to perform sophisticated tasks in space," the Air Force said.

Officers would not talk about specific gear, but said instruments included research across a "broad front to many space programs."

2 Feared Killed In N.O. Fire

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A fire raged out of control in a branch bank and adjoining hotel in the New Orleans French Quarter Friday night.

Two persons were believed dead.

At least a dozen firemen were temporarily trapped on the roof of the burning Morgan State Branch of the Whitney National Bank. Other firefighters were lowering their comrades by ropes.

Flames leaped from the roof the three-story bank building and could be seen nearly a mile away. Part of the roof caved in only minutes after five firemen were seen on top of the building.

The fire started in the adjoining Silver Dollar Hotel.

EIGHT BUILDINGS BURN

Arsonist Has Hot Time On Birthday

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. AP— An unemployed laborer, marking his 34th birthday on Friday the 13th by enjoying the sight of flames, was charged Friday with setting a predawn fire that ate into eight buildings and threatened a large section of the city's east end.

The fast - spreading fire destroyed or damaged the eight buildings, injured nine firemen and left at least 19 persons homeless.

Carl L. Hogan of Hudson Falls was held without bail in Warren County jail in Lake George after his arraignment in Glens Falls City Court on a charge of second - degree arson. No motive for arson was established. Police said he had admitted setting Friday's fire and three others.

Hogan, who police said underwent brain surgery several years ago, was arrested after an alert, free - lance news photographer, Karl Rissland, told police he recognized him as having been at other fires in Hudson Falls.

Rissland told a reporter: "I watched Hogan at the fire. He was smiling, wringing his hands and singing. He went around telling everyone what a nice, big fire it was. Then I said to myself, 'This is it.'"

The fire destroyed a three-story frame, furniture warehouse and three dwellings across the street. The Valcour Corp. paper products plant was heavily damaged.

Two other dwellings and a restaurant were scorched by flames.

No official damage estimate was available.

Texas Pilot Touches Off Controversy

WASHINGTON (UPI)— A Texas National Guard pilot touched off a nationwide controversy Friday with charges that U.S. officials are committing treason by training Communist Yugoslav airmen as part of a planes-for-Tito sale.

The State and Defense Departments defended the training program and plane transaction as part of a long-standing policy designed to keep Yugoslav Marshal Tito out of the Soviet bloc even though he is a Communist.

Officials said the transaction in question involved 135 F86D Saber-jet fighters to Tito. They said it was approved by the Eisenhower administration last January and reapproved by the Kennedy administration.

The wrangle started when Maj. H. C. Knickerbocker, Air National Guard pilot, disclosed in Dallas, Tex., that he had sent a letter to Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., protesting the training of Yugoslav jet pilots at Perrin Air Force Base, Sherman, Tex.

A group of nine Dallas residents led by Thero D. Pantaze, 34, an insurance man, drove from Dallas to Sherman Friday night in three cars to picket the main gate at Perrin AFB. They carried three signs bearing the statement, "We protest training of Red pilots in this country."

"We want to focus a little attention to the fact that we're training pilots from a country that is part of the worldwide conspiracy planning our destruction," Pantaze said. Pantaze appeared on a Sherman radio station seeking to rally local support for the picket line.

A member of the group, Frank McGehee, a former Air Force jet pilot and Korean War veteran who operates an automobile maintenance firm in Dallas, said he has rented the 10,000-seat Dallas Memorial Auditorium for a "mass public demonstration" Saturday night.

Knickerbocker said he saw four Yugoslav pilots at Perrin. The

Passman Raps Deal As 'Phony'

Congressman Otto E. Passman charged in Monroe yesterday that the government's sale of 135 fighter planes to communist Yugoslavia was "phony as a three-dollar bill.

He said the Sabre Jets were "bought" with American dollars.

"To call this transaction a sale is a subterfuge," Passman said when contacted at his office for comment. "Whatever Yugoslavia paid for the planes, if anything, was paid with dollars that we gave to them recently."

Referring to the record, Passman, who is chairman of the House subcommittee on foreign appropriations, noted that the United States has a $2,280.3-billion aid program set up for Yugoslavia.

"There is a new skin game that is being practiced in foreign aid," Passman explained. "The game is this—we will give a nation a dollar's worth of military aid for maybe one cent on the dollar. This is where the subterfuge comes in."

Passman said, "It's a conspiracy that we enter into with the nations so they can claim they bought the military equipment

A high source in Gov. Jimmie H. Davis' administration Friday night disputed a legislator's belief that money needed by parish school boards will be available soon.

The unidentified Baton Rouge official said, "No legislative source knows that to be true or untrue."

One legislator Thursday forecast that tax collections would catch up in Louisiana and school boards would have ample funds to operate on.

He said he is not worried about the school picture in the state.

CAN'T SAY

"No legislative source can say that can or cannot happen. The whole operation of government is based on anticipations," the unidentified official replied, and also took issue with Ouachita Rep. Gibbs.

Gibbs had said Thursday: "It

2 Feared Killed In N.O. Fire

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A fire raged out of control in a branch bank and adjoining hotel in the New Orleans French Quarter Friday night.

Two persons were believed dead.

At least a dozen firemen were temporarily trapped on the roof of the burning Morgan State Branch of the Whitney National Bank. Other firefighters were lowering their comrades by ropes.

Flames leaped from the roof the three-story bank building and could be seen nearly a mile away. Part of the roof caved in only minutes after five firemen were seen on top of the building.

The fire started in the adjoining Silver Dollar Hotel.

Passman Raps Deal As 'Phony'

Congressman Otto E. Passman charged in Monroe yesterday that the government's sale of 135 fighter planes to communist Yugoslavia was "phony as a three-dollar bill.

He said the Sabre Jets were "bought" with American dollars.

"To call this transaction a sale is a subterfuge," Passman said when contacted at his office for comment. "Whatever Yugoslavia paid for the planes, if anything, was paid with dollars that we gave to them recently."

Referring to the record, Passman, who is chairman of the House subcommittee on foreign appropriations, noted that the United States has a $2,280.3-billion aid program set up for Yugoslavia.

"There is a new skin game that is being practiced in foreign aid," Passman explained. "The game is this—we will give a nation a dollar's worth of military aid for maybe one cent on the dollar. This is where the subterfuge comes in."

Passman said, "It's a conspiracy that we enter into with the nations so they can claim they bought the military equipment

DESPITE HEBERT'S PLEA

N.O. Club Rejects Soviet As Speaker

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Young Men's Business Club of Greater New Orleans Friday said it refused to have a Soviet embassy secretary as a guest speaker because the Communist government "cannot speak for those whom they govern by force."

"It is basic common sense that you do not invite into your house as a luncheon guest a person who has vowed to burn down your house or who has murdered your brother," the YMBC said.

The rejected Russian was Gennardi V. Gavrikov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

The YMBC said Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La., requested that the business club have Gavrikov as a guest speaker.

The YMBC program chairman made arrangements to have him speak, but the YMBC board later refused to let the Russian secretary speak when it learned of the selection.

The YMBC said Rep. Edward Hebert, D-La., interceded on behalf of Gavrikov but to no avail. On Wednesday, Hebert criticized the YMBC for its action.

The board of directors, in explaining its reason for rejection, said hand-shaking photos would have been distributed "as false proof of the sympathy of the American business man for the communist program for world domination."

The YMBC added:

"The henchmen of the Communist dictatorship represent only three per cent of the Russian people and therefore cannot speak for those whom they govern by force."

EIGHT BUILDINGS BURN

Arsonist Has Hot Time On Birthday

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. AP— An unemployed laborer, marking his 34th birthday on Friday the 13th by enjoying the sight of flames, was charged Friday with setting a predawn fire that ate into eight buildings and threatened a large section of the city's east end.

The fast - spreading fire destroyed or damaged the eight buildings, injured nine firemen and left at least 19 persons homeless.

Carl L. Hogan of Hudson Falls was held without bail in Warren County jail in Lake George after his arraignment in Glens Falls City Court on a charge of second - degree arson. No motive for arson was established. Police said he had admitted setting Friday's fire and three others.

Hogan, who police said underwent brain surgery several years ago, was arrested after an alert, free - lance news photographer, Karl Rissland, told police he recognized him as having been at other fires in Hudson Falls.

Rissland told a reporter: "I watched Hogan at the fire. He was smiling, wringing his hands and singing. He went around telling everyone what a nice, big fire it was. Then I said to myself, 'This is it.'"

The fire destroyed a three-story frame, furniture warehouse and three dwellings across the street. The Valcour Corp. paper products plant was heavily damaged.

Two other dwellings and a restaurant were scorched by flames.

No official damage estimate was available.

"I was not fully aware of our dealings with Yugoslavia until I came to the Senate," said Tower, the first Republican senator from Texas since reconstruction days. "But I have been consistently opposed to any aid to pro-Soviet states."

Tower said Tito is in league with the Soviet Union to further world socialism. He called for a cessation of aid to any pro-Soviet country, including Cuba, and said he had aides checking on what corrective legislation is appropriate.

However, he said he did not quite agree with Maj. H. C. Knickerbocker Jr. of Dallas, an Air National Guard officer who was quoted by the Dallas News as calling the training program a "treasonous situation."

Tower was in Louisville on a speaking tour and expects to be in Boston Saturday.

Press officer Lincoln White said in Washington Yugoslavia is a Communist country but it "has not been a member of the Soviet bloc since 1948."

White said Yugoslavia has maintained its independence and "has not participated in policies or programs to bring about the overthrow or subversion of legitimate governments by world communism."

World Leader Of Girl Scouts Suffers Attack

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I. (AP) — Lady Baden-Powell, world chief of the Girl Guide-Scout movement, suffered a slight heart attack while attending a luncheon here Friday. She is 72.

Reporters talked to Lady Baden-Powell after she recovered in a public health clinic. She described the attack as "a weak turn."

From her clinic bed she made a five-minute tape record for replay to Girl Guides and Brownies at an afternoon rally and a seven-minute tape of her speech to a civic reception planned for the evening.

"Parish school boards have a lot of responsibility. The state is trying to demonstrate this. Local school boards had better start appraising their own situation."

The source, pointing out that the state has nine months left in this fiscal year, said, "I am sure everything will be alright. But on what day and week this will occur, I can't say. The situation right now is something we have got to struggle with."

Terming the parish school board's money lack a temporary problem, the official said it is "going on in almost every parish in the state" and recommended that the boards borrow from banks for necessary funds, in the same way as the state would do if it needed to.

State Treasurer A. P. Tugwell warned Wednesday that the state owes more than $26 million to parish school systems and that boards without sufficient funds should make arrangements to borrow from banks.

But on the same day, the Ouachita Parish School Board received a $160,775.95 check for its August equalization allotment and the Lincoln Parish School Board received a $106,000 state check.

The possibility of a special session of the legislature, mentioned by area legislators, was discounted by the state official.

Yemen Report Is Disputed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The ancient Arab kingdom of Yemen—remote, restive, sometimes fratricidal—gave indications Friday that the aging, ailing Imam (king) Ahmed may have stepped down from the throne or is about to do so.

Similar reports and indications in the recent past have proved unfounded but political upheavals and violence have occurred there from time to time.

Moscow and other radio newscasts quoted the Yemen radio as saying the imam had quit because of ill-health.

commercial airports.

Most airlines are taking advantage of the occasion to hold "open house" at the airports so people can get a close-up look at the airlines' new jets and other craft.

As one airline official explained it, this has a dual purpose. It will serve as an excellent advertising gimmick. And it will enable the airlines to fill requests by people who want to sightsee among the planes but can't be permitted to do so during regular busy operations.

Trans World airlines is even extending the open house idea overseas during the 12 hours—London, Rome, Geneva and Frankfurt.

Los Angeles International Airport is taking advantage of the lull to put into operation a new 172-foot air traffic control tower.

The order grounding all nonparticipating civil aircraft was issued by N. E. Halaby, administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency, for safety reasons. He said "enemy" jamming tactics may put out of commission many of the radio navigation aids which guide civilian planes.

Airline spokesman were almost unanimous in saying there were few gripes by passengers against not being able to fly on Saturday afternoon and night.

Extra flights were arranged by many of the airlines to handle the Friday and Sunday overflow.

Stuart Tipton, president of the Air Transport Association, has estimated that 125,000 airline passengers would normally be using the airlines during the 12 hours, bringing in about $1 million in revenues.

But Tipton said he didn't expect all this business to be lost because most people who wanted to fly during the period would shift their plans.

The defense test will be directed from the North American Air Defense Command headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo., by the NORAD commander, Laurence S. Kuter.

It will be observed from the Northeastern regional headquarters of the Air Defense Command at Hancock Field, Syracuse, N.Y., by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force chief of staff, Secretary of the Air Force Eugene M. Zuckert, Halaby and other top officials.

Eight Held After Riot In Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Eight youths were held in total bail of $21,500 Friday for taking part in a riot at a Columbus Day schoolboy football doubleheader. Three were stabbed, two seriously, and Boston Mayor John F. Collins termed the affray a "shocking thing."

Two stabbed at the football game were reported comfortable Friday but the name of one remained on the danger list. The third was released.

Mayor Collins said he hoped police will use corrective action to prevent a recurrence "of this shabby spectacle."

Police said the trouble at the football game started when one youth struck another with a crutch. They added that the crutch-user, with a record of 28 arrests, could walk without crutches.

Police said they found a hundred beer cans and liquor bottles at the football stadium after the disturbance was quelled. They added that although white and Negro boys took part no racial issues were involved.

Western officials called the early morning shooting one of the gravest of the almost daily incidents reported along the 100-mile barbed wire and concrete wall encircling West Berlin.

The Communists, said a top-ranking Allied officer, "are becoming more and more insolent."

Some 250 shots were fired, one policeman estimated. Dozens of fresh bullet holes later were counted at eye-level height in trees 30 or 40 yards from the fence.

Defense Department reported that actually a total of 12 Yugoslavs are being — or will be— trained under the program. It said four maintenance men as well as the pilots are at Perrin and that four technicians will report to Lowry Air Force Base at Denver next month.

The Pentagon also said Yugoslavia bought the planes for $10,000 each — a total of $1,300,000 — and agreed to pay for the training program. It said the planes cost $343,000 each to build but had been declared surplus in April, 1960.

The purchase was made on a basis described as a "120-day credit," calling for cash payment in dollars 120 days after delivery.

Knickerbocker charged that those responsible for the training program were giving "aid and comfort" to Communists. He compared their attitude to that of Benedict Arnold.

Shortly after the Dallas Morning News first published Knickerbocker's statements, telegrams critical of the training program started arriving in Sen. Tower's office.

In Louisville, Ky., where he was on a speaking engagement, Tower called the training program "shameful." He said he had "been told, without opportunity thus far to substantiate it, that Yugoslav pilots are being used to train Cuban pilots in and for the Castro air force."

The Defense Department said the F86D's being sold Yugoslavia are considered obsolete in both the regular Air Force and the Air National Guard. They also said Yugoslavia is paying for the training program in dollars.

Since 1952, the United States has given Yugoslavia some $600 million in military aid. Virtually the entire Yugoslav air force consists of planes built in this country.

State Department spokesman Lincoln White stressed that the latest transaction was a U. S. government sale, rather than aid in the form of loans or gifts.

wanted list" on Aug. 29. The FBI said then that he was very dangerous.

The FBI said at the time Morse was put on the "most wanted" list that he was a homosexual exhibitionist and had admitted being an aggressive sex deviate when he was given an undesirable discharge from the Marine Corps 10 years ago.

The FBI said Morse was using the alias Darwin J. Corman and had been working in a St. Paul gasoline station.

When captured, the FBI said, Morse had the pistol, a knife and a straight-edge razor in his possession. But he didn't have time to use the weapons, the FBI said.

Yemen Report Is Disputed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The ancient Arab kingdom of Yemen—remote, restive, sometimes fratricidial—gave indications Friday that the aging, ailing Imam (king) Ahmed may have stepped down from the throne or is about to do so.

Similar reports and indications in the recent past have proved unfounded but political upheavals and violence have occurred there from time to time.

Moscow and other radio newscasts quoted the Yemen radio as saying the imam had quit because of ill-health.

commercial airports.

Most airlines are taking advantage of the occasion to hold "open house" at the airports so people can get a close-up look at the airlines' new jets and other craft.

As one airline official explained it, this has a dual purpose. It will serve as an excellent advertising gimmick. And it will enable the airlines to fill requests by people who want to sightsee among the planes but can't be permitted to do so during regular busy operations.

Trans World airlines is even extending the open house idea overseas during the 12 hours—London, Rome, Geneva and Frankfurt.

Los Angeles International Airport is taking advantage of the lull to put into operation a new 172-foot air traffic control tower.

The order grounding all nonparticipating civil aircraft was issued by N. E. Halaby, administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency, for safety reasons. He said "enemy" jamming tactics may put out of commission many of the radio navigation aids which guide civilian planes.

Airline spokesman were almost unanimous in saying there were few gripes by passengers against not being able to fly on Saturday afternoon and night.

Extra flights were arranged by many of the airlines to handle the Friday and Sunday overflow.

Stuart Tipton, president of the Air Transport Association, has estimated that 125,000 airline passengers would normally be using the airlines during the 12 hours, bringing in about $4 million in revenues.

But Tipton said he didn't expect all this business to be lost because most people who wanted to fly during the period would shift their plans.

The defense test will be directed from the North American Air Defense Command headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo., by the NORAD commander, Laurence S. Kuter.

It will be observed from the Northeastern regional headquarters of the Air Defense Command at Hancock Field, Syracuse, N.Y., by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force chief of staff, Secretary of the Air Force Eugene M. Zuckert, Halaby and other top officials.

rather than accepting it as a gift."

Pointing out that "such transactions" are made with neutrals and communists, Passman said it helped the recipients "save face" in their dealings with the communists.

"Our short-sighted leaders that approve these deals are making themselves a party to the conspiracy," he said. "People should remember that Yugoslavia is a communist nation and just as dedicated to the destruction of our way of life as communist Russia."

Referring to the government's training of eight pilots for Yugoslavia, Passman commented, "That makes it even worse."

Eight Held After Riot In Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Eight youths were held in total bail of $21,500 Friday for taking part in a riot at a Columbus Day schoolboy football doubleheader. Three were stabbed, two seriously, and Boston Mayor John F. Collins termed the affray a "shocking thing."

Two stabbed at the football game were reported comfortable Friday but the name of one remained on the danger list. The third was released.

Mayor Collins said he hoped police will use corrective action to prevent a recurrence "of this shabby spectacle."

Police said the trouble at the football game started when one youth struck another with a crutch. They added that the crutch-user, with a record of 28 arrests, could walk without crutches.

Police said they found a hundred beer cans and liquor bottles at the football stadium after the disturbance was quelled. They added that although white and Negro boys took part no racial issues were involved.

YEMEN KING ABDICATES

ADEN (UPI)—Imam Ahmed, 73-year-old king of Yemen, Friday announced his abdication in favor of his 41-year-old son, Crown Prince Mohammed Al-Badr, in a Yemen broadcast monitored here.

The ruler of the isolated Red Sea kingdom spoke on Radio Sanaa. He asked the nation to obey the crown prince as king.

Reports from Yemen said the aged Imam's health was deteriorating and he intended to go to Italy for medical treatment.

World Opinion Bugaboo

One of the favorite themes of leftists, radical-liberals and one-worlders is that people in the United States must not do anything that would affect us adversely as far as world opinion is concerned. Not content with that, they want to tell us what world opinion is against and what we must not do.

When our forefathers came to this country and carved their homes out of the wilderness, they were far more concerned with doing what they thought was right than in trying to please the rest of the world. They thought doing the right thing was what they should do and then, if the world did not approve, then the world was wrong. They had stamina and fortitude enough to make their own decisions about what was right and what was wrong.

If we follow a just and upright course and one we believe to be for the best interests of our citizens as a whole we do not need to worry about what the world will think of us, for we shall have the world's respect. If we are pulled in every direction trying to do what we think the rest of the world wants us to do we shall lose the respect of all nations. In losing that respect we have already gone a considerable distance, but it was through not using our own judgment and not showing enough stamina to stand up for what we thought was right, not because we did not try hard enough to please the other nations.

[illegible] deplore Russia's aggressive moves but we are often forced to wonder if they do not respect that country more than they do the United States for the simple reason that Russia does not hesitate to pursue the course it has mapped out, while the United States appears to be devoted to appeasing all enemy nations. This goes so far that the United States approves enemy dictators but cracks down on dictators in countries that are friendly to the United States, thus losing more of the friends it might have.

Radical - leftists constantly assert that the southern states must not resist integration because this resistance might have an adverse effect upon world opinion. They charge that the "image" of America is distorted when southerners seek to retain their accustomed way of life.

The image the radical - leftists have created is already so distorted that any further change in its shape could hardly make it worse. These leftists worry mightily about the mote that the southerners might have in their eyes but think nothing of the beam in their own eyes.

When labor czars spring into action and utter ugly abuse about American communities and government and when they imperil the safety of the United States by engaging in strikes at the time war is threatening, the leftists forget all about how this may make America appear in the eyes of the rest of the world.

No prominent radical - liberals spoke up when the National Maritime Union sought to cripple the economy of the coastal cities last summer or when James R. Hoffa, boss of the National Teamsters Union, killed a proposal at the union's annual convention that would have put his re-election as president up to the rank and file members of the union, instead of leaving it up to the sub-bosses who are dependent on him for their fat-paying jobs.

What are respectable people in civilized countries to think when the nation that professes to be a model of good society permits monopolists and labor dictators to lord it over individuals and entire cities?

In the maritime strike, five unions imposed millions of dollars of losses on seaport cities and industries therein. No way exists for the communities or companies to recover what they lost through union arrogance and irresponsibility. The shipping strike, as is the case of all industry-wide strikes, was an example of unbridled union power.

The Taft-Hartley law exists but President Kennedy had the bad taste to say he regretted having to use it, although he has let it be known that he would like for the federal government to be able to take over industry so that labor unions would lose completely the right accorded them under the Taft-Hartley law to strike.

Another strange thing is that Attorney General Robert Kennedy, who announced after the election of President Kennedy that he was going after Hoffa, seems to have slowed down. Two things are certain—Robert Kennedy knows how to put the heat on Hoffa and he is not afraid of doing it if he wanted to and had the go-ahead signal from the president.

The New Frontier and the attorney general have ample power. Not satisfied with running the office of attorney general and the department of justice, Robert Kennedy, is said to have asked his brother for the power to ride herd on all the other major departments of government by granting him authority to inspect their actions.

The New Frontier does not hesitate to tell textile workers whom they will work alongside. It permits oriental countries to flood the textile market, even though this injures the domestic industry. It has power and energy for hundreds of projects but when it comes to cracking down on big unionism, it does nothing.

Only when the radical-leftists in this country have a self-serving purpose are they concerned over what the rest of the world will think of the United States. They will use world opinion as a bludgeon in an attempt to take away the right of people to choose their own associates but they give world opinion the horse-laugh when this country is hit by union tyranny.

Controversial Seminar

Nationally recognized spokesmen representing opposing viewpoints in one of America's most controversial areas of legal conflict—right to work vs. compulsory union membership — will clash soon in Chicago.

Purpose of the two-day seminar is to "focus public attention on the genuine benefits of the right-to-work law and the character of the nationwide movement; to encourage, inspire and assist the right-to-work leadership in all 50 states and to equip them better to carry on state campaigns for passage, protection and enforcement of right-to-work laws, and to highlight the coming attempt to repeal section 14b of the Taft-Hartley act, which permits states to enact right to work laws.

Speakers will include Thomas E. Harris, associate general council of the A.F.L.-C.I.O., representing labor union officials; Lafayette A. Hoose, railroad engineer and chairman of the National Council for Labor's Rank and File, who will express the viewpoint of workers who are opposed to compulsory union membership; and Reed Larson, executive vice-president of the National Right to Work Committee.

Of utmost importance is the fight against repeal of the provision giving states the right to enact and enforce right-to-work laws. This is another question on which voters should make their wishes known to members of congress.

New Farm Supports Barred

President Kennedy, Seeking Balance Budget For 1963, Tightens Rein In Series Of Economy Moves

President Kennedy is quietly barring the Agriculture Department from making new price support commitments on major farm commodities without White House approval.

This fiscal rein tightening is being ordered by the President as the first of a series of major economy moves that he plans to take to cut domestic government spending before Congress returns in January.

His objective: a balanced federal budget for fiscal 1963, that runs from July 1, 1962, to July 1, 1963.

The President issued his order after Walter Heller, chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers, warned that this year's bumper farm crops were threatening to increase government farm price support payments by more than 2 billion.

An increase of such proportions would throw the fiscal '63 budget completely out of balance.

In addition to his veto order, the President is asking Heller to make a study to determine if farm subsidies could be drastically reduced during the coming year. Heller's findings are due by December 1.

At present, the Agriculture Department has holdings of surplus farm commodities valued at slightly more than $7 billion. According to Agriculture Department aides, these government surpluses could climb to $9 billion next year unless new production curbs are ordered this year.

On request of the President, Agriculture Department officials are considering a possible cut in the national cotton quota to help reduce the high cost of the price support and subsidy program.

A reduction of 2½ million acres is being mentioned in administration circles. The present national quota is 18.5 million acres, while cotton producers want it boosted to around 20 million. Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman must announce the 1962 cotton allotments by Oct. 15.

STORM WARNINGS — In a major effort to head off this cotton acreage allotment reduction, eight cotton state senators, headed by Senator Allen Ellender, D., La., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, have appealed directly to the President.

In their letter, they warned that a sharp cut in quotas "would lead to a possible cotton shortage that would be detrimental to the national interests at a time of threatened war."

"A prospective shortage in supply would touch off scare buying around the world," the Senators wrote, "which would temporarily stimulate U. S. cotton exports and increase the cost of export subsidy."

President Kennedy acknowledged the appeal without making a commitment. He had Larry O'Brien, his top liaison man with Congress, reply that "the whole cotton situation is being carefully studied."

Senators making the appeal included James O. Eastland, D., Miss., Olin D. Johnston, D., S.C., Strom Thurmond, D., S. C., Everett Jordan, D., N. C., Clair Engle, D., Calif., Richard Russell, D., Ga., and Carl Hayden, D., Ariz.

CUTTING BACK — Other spending cutbacks under consideration by the President and his top fiscal aides include the impounding of $200 million in extra defense funds voted by Congress, a slow down in spending for public works projects, and limiting of manpower hiring by several government agencies.

White House aides report that the President is planning to try to bring the 1963 budget into balance despite the big boost in military spending caused by the Berlin crisis.

"By ordering reductions now," a presidential aide points out, "the President is getting ready to meet his congressional spending critics head on in January."

LOOKING AHEAD — President Kennedy is sounding out key members of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy to determine their reaction to legislation giving Canada nuclear weapons. The proposal is now under secret discussion between the President and Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. The law now specifically prohibits the government from giving any country atomic weapons . . . The State Department is predicting that Karl Schirdewan, whom Red boss Walter Ulbricht purged three years ago, will be picked by the Kremlin to take over in East Germany next year. Problem Of Love

Girl Is Afraid To Marry Men Who Has Temper Tantrums

This is not a column which specializes in advice for those beset by love and its many "sweet sorrows." Nevertheless, as a physician, I know that these often loom large in the lives of lovers. And I also know, having been confronted with thousands of such patients who became nervous and upset by indecision, that it is no laughing matter. For example, consider today's letter:

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am engaged to a young man who is very nice and very intelligent; however, there are certain qualities that disturb me, and I wonder whether my concern is warranted.

He has a bad temper, and has on several occasions thrown various objects against a wall, banged the wall with his fist, and even grabbed my wrists. As soon as he does these things, he is ashamed and sorry.

After each outburst, I feel that perhaps he is not what I should like as the father of my children. These outbursts do not occur frequently, but I have the feeling that they are not normal for a 22-year-old person.

Would that be a sign of emotional instability? Also he has certain fears that are disturbing me. He will not ride a self-service elevator alone for fear he will get stuck in them. I have a feeling he may also have other fears that I know nothing about.

Most of the time, I am very satisfied with our relationship. We have much in common and we laugh and have lots of fun together. I am 19. He wants to make plans for our wedding, but I would like to hear from you first. Thank you very much for any help you may offer me.—Disturbed.

COMMENT: I have made it a rule never to say "yea" or "nay" where marriage is concerned. Nevertheless, I can throw this advice out to you: I believe that every young (or older) couple should have a complete physical and emotional evaluation by their family doctors. Each owes it to the other to come clean about their health status.

In your case, why not suggest that to your intended? Tell him you are going in for a checkup to his doctor, and ask him to go in to see yours. Be sure he mentions his nervousness. After the reports come in, the decision will rest with you (and with him). Better think it over before you rush into wedding plans!

ARM-SWELLING AFTER BREAST OPERATIONS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Is swelling of the arm common after operation for cancer of the breast? I am so troubled. — Mrs. E. Pennsylvania

ANSWER: In one series of over 300 cases where either operation, radiation (or both) had been done after surgery, about one-third of the patients had such swelling. But only about half of these patients said that the swelling was of any inconvenience. However, I have seen some in whom the discomfort was not exactly what you might call negligible.

The swelling in most cases is due to interference with venous and lymphatic drainage. This depends upon the severity of the reaction to the surgery itself and to an x ray irritation which disturbs the circulation.

Many people fear a breast operation because of the complication of arm-swelling. You can see that the odds are not as bad as you may have thought. In fact, when operation is distinctly indicated, nothing should interfere with the decision. Where cancer is concerned, you can't temporize or procrastinate.

German Survival

Contributions Great Despite Being Called Miscalculators

I saw a piece about Germany in which it was said that the Germans are the greatest miscalculators in history. I presume that the writer referred to World War I and World War II. But the German people have existed for many centuries, even before Julius Caesar tried his hand at history, and the Teutonic peoples have produced so much in education, philosophy, history, anthropology, chemistry, physics and every field of learning that it is impossible to say that they miscalculated. What can be said was that they were defeated in two wars, although they have been victorious in many more wars. They were defeated by the superiority of American industry and the willingness and capacity of our industrialists and workers to be productive.

This has nothing to do with miscalculation because every study of American production in, say 1912, would have justified the assumption that Germany could win a war against Great Britain, France and Russia. And Germany held out from 1914 to 1917 when the United States upset the balance by entering World War I actively. Similarly, Hitler was able to hold out on multiple fronts from 1939 to 1945, but weakened and was ultimately defeated by the genius and capacity of American industry. World War II was won in the mills and factories of America.

The nature of war has changed and we are now faced by a science which can be known by a small nation as well as by a great nation. France manufactured an atom bomb; so did little Israel. Automation destroys any monopoly of production. Mass production can be accomplished by small countries as well as by large, automation eliminates the need for enormous industrialized populations. In fact, automation may produce such difficult social problems that larger populations will be disadvantageous.

The Germans have proved after World War II that their intellectual capacity was unimpaired by war and failure. Not only did West Germany succeed in rebuilding a prosperous state with a high and rising economy but it convinced its former adversaries that Germany was an invaluable bastion of Western civilization. It has been said that West Germany could not have achieved such a reconstruction without American aid; the wisdom of Western Germany is made evident in the swift turn-about from Hitlerism to capitalism and the establishment of a government acceptable to its former enemies. The Adenauer-de Gaulle Alliance, personal though it may be, is one of the strongest anti-Russian forces today.

If the writer of Germany's miscalculations was familiar with European history, he would know that for a thousand years, it was the Germans who kept the Slav out of what was historically regarded as Europe. The Teutonic knights, the Dukes of Saxony, the Germans fighting in Latvia kept the Slav closed in. Peter the Great foresaw the nature of this struggle between East and West and moved his capital from Moscow to St. Petersburg, now Leningrad, which pushed Russia further into Europe.

World War II was essentially a struggle between Russia and Germany for the domination of the world. Hitler attempted to achieve this objective without war and in 1939, the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact was arranged. It could not last because both Stalin and Hitler were insincere. Stalin, as a Marxist, could only think in terms of the conquest of the entire world by Marxism-Leninism. He could not tolerate an anti-Marxist force such as Hitler had built. On the other hand, Hitler could not be a true ally of Stalin for the same reasons in reverse. They therefore slit and their alliance failed. But Hitler had managed to weaken the Soviet economy.

Hitler's error lay in an utter misunderstanding of the mentality of Franklin D. Roosevelt. There is ample evidence that Roosevelt's principal antagonism was toward British imperialism. As a matter of fact, World War II was being fiercely fought from September 1, 1939 until December 7, 1941 without direct American participation and when the United States did go to war, it was because of the Japanese attack at Pearl Harbor and not because of anything the Germans did. Suppose the Japanese had not attacked at Pearl Harbor, would Roosevelt have found a way to intervene in the war against Germany? If there was such a possibility, why could he not find it prior to Pearl Harbor?

The assumption that the Germans miscalculated is based upon a lack of understanding of the forces that move nations to war. Hitler's principal enemy was Soviet Russia. Any correct reading of history since October 1917 establishes that Soviet Russia had been the enemy of the United States. What is occurring today only substantiates Roosevelt's historic miscalculation.

U. S. Senator From Arizona

I am dismayed that men of great intellectual ability, such as U. S. Commissioner of Education Sterling M. McMurrin, are openly suggesting that the methods of totalitarian states are in any way superior to the practices of societies living under representative government.

In his speech at Harvard University, Mr. McMurrin said: "The question we now must ask is whether, without the regimentation of the human souls and their resources that we quite properly abhor and through a protracted period of collective anxiety that commonly weakens rather than strengthens a nation's character, we have the intellectual, moral and spiritual resources to guarantee our security in the presence of totalitarian states of great power."

This indeed is the queston, Mr. McMurrin. Those of us who oppose the expansion of bureaucracy and the delegation of all responsibility to the federal establishment answer your question with a ringing, "Yes." We do have the power to maintain our freedom in this world without "regimentation of human souls and their sources . . ."

Free men have been and always will be more productive than slaves. A free society in which the diversity of talent among men is recognized where creative effort is encouraged and rewarded, always has and always will create more power and more enduring strength than a totalitarian state.

We are, I suggest, being whipped into action by those who would use the recent accomplishments of the Soviet Union as a scourge to drive us to surrender some of our individual freedoms.

It is true that the Soviet Union has made some remarkable advances in rocketry and missiles, and in the development of some weapons of war, but I would remind Mr. McMurrin and those who agree with him that much of this spectacular scientific advance has been based on the wisdom and knowledge of the west —stolen by spies or in some cases freely offered to the world by our men of science.

In his speech at Harvard, Mr. McMurrin said: "emphasis mine "It is now entirely clear to us that whatever may be the quality of individual life in a totalitarian society, a vast potential of national power is provided by the monolithic structure of its purposes and institutions."

Let us not dismiss the importance of the individual in such cavalier fashion. The quality of individual life in a totalitarian society, Mr. McMurrin, is miserable, for slavery is contrary to the nature of man, and those who live as slaves in a very real sense are aleady dead.

Man is more than a machine to be used efficiently, and because this is true, man is more efficient under freedom. The low standard of living, the lack of cultural and educational opportunities, the limitations on travel, the brutal censorship which characterize the totalitarian Communist states would be unacceptable to a once free people even if it could be proved that tyranny is more efficient. And indeed all logic, all understanding of history, all current reports on Russia, to my mind at least, establish beyond question the error of that suggestion.

World Opinion Bugaboo

One of the favorite themes of leftists, radical-liberals and one-worlders is that people in the United States must not do anything that would affect us adversely as far as world opinion is concerned. Not content with that, they want to tell us what world opinion is against and what we must not do.

When our forefathers came to this country and carved their homes out of the wilderness, they were far more concerned with doing what they thought was right than in trying to please the rest of the world. They thought doing the right thing was what they should do and then, if the world did not approve, then the world was wrong. They had stamina and fortitude enough to make their own decisions about what was right and what was wrong.

If we follow a just and upright course and one we believe to be for the best interests of our citizens as whole we do not need to worry about what the world will think of us, for we shall have the world's respect. If we jump around in every direction trying to do what we think the rest of the world wants us to do we shall lose the respect of all nations. In losing that respect we have already gone a considerable distance, but it was through not using our own judgment and not showing enough stamina to stand up for what we thought was right, not because we did not try hard enough to please the other nations.

People of many nations deplore Russia's aggressive moves but we are often forced to wonder if they do not respect that country more than they do the United States for the simple reason that Russia does not hesitate to pursue the course it has mapped out, while the United States appears to be devoted to appeasing all enemy nations. This goes so far that the United States approves enemy dictators but cracks down on dictators in countries that are friendly to the United States, thus losing many of the friends it might have.

Radical - leftists continually assert that the southern states must not resist integration because this resistance might have an adverse effect upon world opinion. They charge that the "image" of America is distorted when southerners seek to retain their accustomed way of life.

The image the radical - leftists have created is already so distorted that any further change in its shape could hardly make it worse. These leftists worry mightily about the mote that the southerners might have in their eyes but think nothing of the beam in their own eyes.

When labor czars spring into action and utter ugly abuse about American communities and government and when they imperil the safety of the United States by engaging in strikes at the time war is threatening, the leftists forget all about how this may make America appear in the eyes of the rest of the world.

No prominent radical - liberals spoke up when the National Maritime Union sought to cripple the economy of the coastal cities last summer or when James R. Hoffa, boss of the National Teamsters Union, killed a proposal at the union's annual convention that would have put his re-election as president up to the rank and file members of the union, instead of leaving it up to the sub-bosses who are dependent on him for their fat-paying jobs.

What are respectable people in civilized countries to think when the nation that professes to be a model of good society permits monopolists and labor dictators to lord it over individuals and entire cities?

In the maritime strike, five unions imposed millions of dollars of losses on seaport cities and industries therein. No way exists for the communities or companies to recover what they lost through union arrogance and irresponsibility. The shipping strike, as is the case of all industry-wide strikes, was an example of unbridled union power.

The Taft-Hartley law exists but President Kennedy had the bad taste to say he regretted having to use it, although he has let it be known that he would like for the federal government to be able to take over industry so that labor unions would lose completely the right accorded them under the Taft-Hartley law to strike.

Another strange thing is that Attorney General Robert Kennedy, who announced after the election of President Kennedy that he was going after Hoffa, seems to have slowed down. Two things are certain—Robert Kennedy knows how to put the heat on Hoffa and he is not afraid of doing it if he wanted to and had the go-ahead signal from the president.

The New Frontier and the attorney general have ample power. Not satisfied with running the office of attorney general and the department of justice, Robert Kennedy, is said to have asked his brother for the power to ride herd on all the other major departments of government by granting him authority to inspect their actions.

The New Frontier does not hesitate to tell textile workers whom they will work alongside. It permits oriental countries to flood the textile market, even though this injures the domestic industry. It has power and energy for hundreds of projects but when it comes to cracking down on big unionism, it does nothing.

Only when the radical-leftists in this country have a self-serving purpose are they concerned over what the rest of the world will think of the United States. They will use world opinion as a bludgeon in an attempt to take away the right of people to choose their own associates but they give world opinion the horse-laugh when this country is hit by union tyranny.

Controversial Seminar

Nationally recognized spokesmen representing opposing viewpoints in one of America's most controversial areas of legal conflict—right to work vs. compulsory union membership — will clash soon in Chicago.

Purpose of the two-day seminar is to "focus public attention on the genuine benefits of the right-to-work law and the character of the nationwide movement; to encourage, inspire and assist the right-to-work leadership in all 50 states and to equip them better to carry on state campaigns for passage, protection and enforcement of right-to-work laws, and to highlight the coming attempt to repeal section 14b of the Taft-Hartley act, which permits states to enact right to work laws.

Speakers will include Thomas E. Harris, associate general council of the A.F.L.-C.I.O.; representing labor union officials; Lafayette A. Hoose, railroad engineer and chairman of the National Council for Labor's Rank and File, who will express the viewpoint of workers who are opposed to compulsory union membership; and Reed Larson, executive vice-president of the National Right to Work Committee.

Of utmost importance is the fight against repeal of the provision giving states the right to enact and enforce right-to-work laws. This is another question on which voters should make their wishes known to members of congress.

New Farm Supports Barred

President Kennedy, Seeking Balance Budget For 1963, Tightens Rein In Series Of Economy Moves

President Kennedy is quietly barring the Agriculture Department from making new price support commitments on major farm commodities without White House approval.

This fiscal rein tightening is being ordered by the President as the first of a series of major economy moves that he plans to take to cut domestic government spending before Congress returns in January.

His objective: a balanced federal budget for fiscal 1963, that runs from July 1, 1962, to July 1, 1963.

The President issued his order after Walter Heller, chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers, warned that this year's bumper farm crops were threatening to increase government farm price support payments by more than 2 billion.

An increase of such proportions would throw the fiscal '63 budget completely out of balance.

In addition to his veto order, the President is asking Heller to make a study to determine if farm subsidies could be drastically reduced during the coming year. Heller's findings are due by December 1.

At present, the Agriculture Department has holdings of surplus farm commodities valued at slightly more than $7 billion. According to Agriculture Department aides, these government surpluses could climb to $9 billion next year unless new production curbs are ordered this year.

On request of the President, Agriculture Department officials are considering a possible cut in the national cotton quota to help reduce the high cost of the price support and subsidy program.

A reduction of 2½ million acres is being mentioned in administration circles. The present national quota is 18.5 million acres, while cotton producers want it boosted to around 20 million. Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman must announce the 1962 cotton allotments by Oct. 15.

STORM WARNINGS — In a major effort to head off this cotton acreage allotment reduction, eight cotton state senators, headed by Senator Allen Ellender, D., La., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, have appealed directly to the President.

In their letter, they warned that a sharp cut in quotas "would lead to a possible cotton shortage that would be detrimental to the national interests at a time of threatened war."

"A prospective shortage in supply would touch off scare buying around the world," the Senators wrote, "which would temporarily stimulate U. S. cotton exports and increase the cost of export subsidy."

President Kennedy acknowledged the appeal without making a commitment. He had Larry O'Brien, his top liaison man with Congress, reply that "the whole cotton situation is being carefully studied."

Senators making the appeal included James O. Eastland, D, Miss., Olin D. Johnston, D, S.C., Strom Thurmond, D, S. C., Everett Jordan, D, N. C., Clair Engle, D, Calif., Richard Russell, D, Ga., and Carl Hayden, D, Ariz.

CUTTING BACK — Other spending cutbacks under consideration by the President and his top fiscal aides include the impounding of $200 million in extra defense funds voted by Congress; a slow down in spending for public works projects; and limiting of manpower hiring by several government agencies.

White House aides report that the President is planning to try to bring the 1963 budget into balance despite the big boost in military spending caused by the Berlin crisis.

"By ordering reductions now," a presidential aide points out, "the President is getting ready to meet his congressional spending critics head on in January."

LOOKING AHEAD — President Kennedy is sounding out key members of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy to determine their reaction to legislation giving Canada nuclear weapons. The proposal is now under secret discussion between the President and Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. The law now specifically prohibits the government from giving any country atomic weapons . . . The State Department is predicting that Karl Schirdewan, whom Red boss Walter Ulbright purged three years ago, will be picked by the Kremlin to take over in East Germany next year. It is true that the Soviet Union has made some remarkable advances in rocketry and missiles, and in the development of some weapons of war, but I would remind Mr. McMurrin and those who agree with him that much of this spectacular scientific advance has been based on the wisdom and knowledge of the west —stolen by spies or in some cases freely offered to the world by our men of science.

In his speech at Harvard, Mr. McMurrin said: "emphasis mine "It is now entirely clear to us that whatever may be the quality of individual life in a totalitarian society, a vast potential of national power is provided by the monolithic structure of its purposes and institutions."

Let us not dismiss the importance of the individual in such cavalier fashion. The quality of individual life in a totalitarian society, Mr. McMurrin, is miserable, for slavery is contrary to the nature of man, and those who live as slaves in a very real sense are aleady dead.

Man is more than a machine to be used efficiently, and because this is true, man is more efficient under freedom. The low standard of living, the lack of cultural and educational opportunities, the limitations on travel, the brutal censorship which characterize the totalitarian Communist states would be unacceptable to a once free people even if it could be proved that tyranny is more efficient. And indeed all logic, all understanding of history, all current reports on Russia, to my mind at least, establish beyond question the error of that suggestion.

How do you stand, sir?

IN WEST BERLIN

Gen. Clay Takes Stand For Rights

By WELLINGTON LONG

BERLIN (UPI)—The fine hand of Georgia's Lucius D. Clay can be seen in most everything in West Berlin since the retired general returned last month to the scene of his victory over communism in 1949.

Clay, at that time, with the powers of viceroy, almost by sheer will drove the Berliners to heights of herosim they had not imagined during the 1949-49 Soviet blockade of their city.

He's back now that the Communists are threatening West Berlin again, and things are starting to hum.

This time, Clay operates from a corner office in the huge building which used to house his headquarters as U.S. military governor of Germany. From that three-room suite flow all kinds of electric suggestions quickly translated into action.

Clay was sent here Sept. 19 as President Kennedy's personal representative and advisor.

By that time, the wall the Communists drove through the city was a month old, and American combat soldiers had been patrolling it for three weeks.

In general, the West was on the defensive here.

Clay started to change that, limited as was his room for maneuver.

First, he started to exercise dormant Allied rights. He restored regular American military patrols along the four-lane Autobahn Allied and German cars and trucks use to cross East Germany to and from Berlin.

The right had been pretty well abandoned years ago.

Then Clay personally visited tiny Steinstuecken, a part of the American sector of West Berlin but separated from it and surrounded by Communist-held territory. He also ordered a detachment of military police stationed in the village.

Two years ago, when there was a fuss about Steinstuecken, the American Embassy staff in Bonn was unable to locate a file on the enclave.

Clay keeps American military men and their families exercising their right to move freely into and about East Berlin. Every few minutes, one can be seen crossing into East Berlin.

He is reliably reported juggling a half-dozen other ideas for demonstrating Allied presence and rights.

But he also ordered American combat troops pulled back from the wall and held in reserve.

He is said to consider it undignified for American combat soldiers to patrol a border where much of the fighting is done with water hoses.

He was severely criticized in many quarters for permitting German newspapermen to attend his press conferences less than six months after the end of World War Two.

"We are trying to restore democracy here," he exlained then. "I want these fellows to learn they must cross-examine authority."

He was equally criticized when he ordered county and municipal elections in the American Zone of West Germany before the end of 1945. But again, he wanted the Germans to share responsibility and regain self-confidence.

He's reaching the same thing now.

Insurance Men Warned Of Dangers

Lloyd E. Lenard, a Shreveport conservative, told the regular monthly meeting of the Monroe Association of National Life Underwriters that life insurance men were serving as disciples of freedom. The meeting was held at the Paragon Club at noon yesterday.

In a speech that stressed the rise of socialism in this country, Lenard said that "we (the underwriters) are disciples of freedom because we encourage people to do it for themselves rather than let the government do it for them."

A general agent for Pan American Life Insurance in Shreveport, he told the members and guests of the meeting that America was fast becoming encircled by communism as well as being swept with socialism within the country.

He pointed out that eight billion people were now under communist rule and that 2.9 billion of them had been "swallowed by communism since 1945."

FACELESS PEOPLE

Americans are living in the age of "faceless people," and a lot of Americans were willing to "let George do it," rather than assume the duties of freedom themselves.

"I do not want my children to live in the kind of country which this is becoming unless you and I assume our responsibilities," he said and added that "only you and I can stop the trend to socialism in this country".

Lenard noted several things that must be done to prevent the "trend to socialism."

"The first thing we must do is realize that you can see the tangible results of freedom everywhere around you."

"The second thing we must do is to take a more active part in public affairs.

"The third thing we must do is learn to recognize our two greatest enemies — socialism and communism.

"Finally, we must become crusaders for democracy," he said.

While speaking of becoming a crusader for democracy, Lenard said, "we must reaffirm our faith in democracy and what's more we must make sure our fellow men know of our faith."

He warned that if communism should ever take over this country, people will be divided into three groups, "those they can buy, those they can terrify and those that are too independent to go along with them." He added that the too independent will "wish they were dead a thousand times."

First executive vice president of the association, Edward Zeigler, presided over the business meeting. Bill Inabnet introduced the guest speaker, and said that Lenard has been runner-up for three consecutive years in the Shreveport young man of the year contests.

REASSIGNED BY ARMY

Gen. Walker Gets Duty In Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, the Army officer who was lifted out of his command in Europe in a controversy over anticommunism teaching methods for troops, has been assigned to a job in the Pacific.

Walker, a brief Army announcement said Friday, will go to Pacific headquarters in Hawaii next month to be assistant chief of staff for operations, plans and training.

Walker was commander of the 24th Infantry Division in Germany when he was removed from that post last spring pending completion of investigation into troop education programs on anticommunism which were conducted in his division.

Some members of Congress have declared that punitive action against Walker was taken merely because he was a zealous anti-Communist.

Walker was given an official reprimand as well as being removed from his command. It was announced at the time that the actions were taken because he had publicly made derogatory statements about prominent Americans.

Subsequently, the Senate Armed Services Committee looked into the matter, calling Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara to testify.

SEALED IN WALLS

Old Capitol Mural May Be Restored

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 100-year old mural sealed in the walls of the Capitol is being carefully uncovered in hopes it can be returned to public view.

The mural, about 12 feet square, shows Washington receiving the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. It was painted by Constantino Brumidi, "The Michelangelo of the Capitol," directly on a plaster wall of the House wing built in 1857.

When the House was remodeled 10 years ago the mural was swallowed up by a thick new wall built around it. Congress had failed to provide any money to move it, and besides, no one knew what to do with it.

Now the money—about $15,000—has been made available, a spot awaits the mural in a new Capitol restaurant for House members, and the only problem is getting it out intact.

But that's quite a problem. The century-old plaster crumbles at a touch. It can't be cut, which means the whole, thin sheet of plaster, about an inch thick, must be taken out in one piece.

Mario E. Campioli, assistant Capitol architect, has written to art experts throughout the world seeking advice on how to move the painting, which he values at $150,000.

Frescoes — paintings done on freshly spread wet plaster as Brumidi's was—have been moved successfully, particularly in Italy. But as far as Campioli knows it has never before been tried in this country, at least with such a large mural and under such circumstances.

The front of the painting is covered by heavy wood paneling inset with marble columns, which form the inside wall of the House chamber. It has been decided to leave this wall intact and try to take the painting out through the rear.

But a double brick wall backs up the fresco. It must be removed brick by brick—about 1,600 in all—without cracking the thin plaster sheet adhering to it. Skilled workmen have been assigned this ticklish job under the direction of Henri G. Courtais, a French-born New York muralist and restorer of paintings.

For the past few weeks Courtais has been experimenting with various glues and resins with which he plans to impregnate the plaster so it will be hardened enough to move without breaking. He has finally selected a resin and the work of taking off the bricks and exposing the plaster back of the painting is now under way.

More problems lie ahead, however, such as how to impregnate a perpendicular surface. The resin can't be sprayed or brushed on because it won't penetrate that way. And what will support the fresco after the brick backing is removed so the plaster can be impregnated?

Courtais thinks he has the answers but he's taking each step cautiously and keeping his fingers crossed. He hopes to have Washington and Cornwallis out of their walled-in tomb by the end of the year, but whether intact or in pieces remains to be seen.

Testing Your Horse Sense

SEALED IN WALLS

Old Capitol Mural May Be Restored

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 100-year-old mural sealed in the walls of the Capitol is being carefully uncovered in hopes it can be returned to public view.

The mural, about 12 feet square, shows Washington receiving the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. It was painted by Constantino Brumidi, "The Michelangelo of the Capitol," directly on a plaster wall of the House wing built in 1857.

When the House was remodeled 10 years ago the mural was swallowed up by a thick new wall built around it. Congress had failed to provide any money to move it, and besides, no one knew what to do with it.

Now the money—about $15,000—has been made available, a spot awaits the mural in a new Capitol restaurant for House members, and the only problem is getting it out intact.

But that's quite a problem. The century-old plaster crumbles at a touch. It can't be cut, which means the whole, thin sheet of plaster, about an inch thick, must be taken out in one piece.

Mario E. Campioli, assistant Capitol architect, has written to art experts throughout the world seeking advice on how to move the painting, which he values at $150,000.

Frescoes — paintings done on freshly spread wet plaster as Brumidi's was—have been moved successfully, particularly in Italy. But as far as Campioli knows it has never before been tried in this country, at least with such a large mural and under such circumstances.

The front of the painting is covered by heavy wood paneling inset with marble columns, which form the inside wall of the House chamber. It has been decided to leave this wall intact and try to take the painting out through the rear.

But a double brick wall backs up the fresco. It must be removed brick by brick—about 1,600 in all—without cracking the thin plaster sheet adhering to it. Skilled workmen have been assigned this ticklish job under the direction of Henri G. Courtais, a French-born New York muralist and restorer of paintings.

For the past few weeks Courtais has been experimenting with various glues and resins with which he plans to impregnate the plaster so it will be hardened enough to move without breaking. He has finally selected a resin and the work of taking off the bricks and exposing the plaster back of the painting is now under way.

More problems lie ahead, however, such as how to impregnate a perpendicular surface. The resin can't be sprayed or brushed on because it won't penetrate that way. And what will support the fresco after the brick backing is removed so the plaster can be impregnated?

Courtais thinks he has the answers but he's taking each step cautiously and keeping his fingers crossed. He hopes to have Washington and Cornwallis out of their walled-in tomb by the end of the year, but whether intact or in pieces remains to be seen.

Voice Of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Rosemary Clooney was politely eased off the very correct Telephone Hour because she had just announced her impending divorce from Jose Ferrer and every song she wanted to sing was deemed "unsuitable" for the sensibilities of the TV audience, in view of her marital problems. Wonder if the big shots who wouldn't let Rosie croon a love song are aware that The Brothers Four are currently rehearsing a very risque song for that same Telephone Hour? Someone did ask them to delete the last verse, but it's still a very "blue" ditty, to put it gently.

Judy Garland has agreed to invade West Berlin in December. She'll take along only three American musicians and her irreplaceable conductor, Mort Lindsey . . . A young actor making the rounds of the producers' and casting offices sends many people into shock. He looks so much like his father, Robert Walker, who has been dead for years.

Members of the New York City Ballet are furious with the Cleveland impresario who booked them into that city and didn't mention that the night they opened was also the opening night of the season for the Cleveland Orchestra, which drew all the society in full regalia as well as the first string critics.

ISn't the Russian Embassy (which houses the delegates to the United Nations, at 68th and Park) up for sale for a mere $300,000? The diplomatic grapevine has it that the Commies have bought themselves an apartment house in Gotham — possibly because they need more room, or because they're becoming annoyed by the shouting of the pickets who represent anti-Russian factions.

Recent visitors to Tangier say it's a swingin' town and Barbara Hutton's villa is the swingin' place, if you can get invited to one of her champagne bashes. Most people love her parties, but a few ladies have been heard to complain that they don't enjoy standing around paying homage to her as if she were royalty. She usually wears a tiara when she makes her entrance.

Sparkling Caterina Valente, a Perry Como guest, had a Ceil Chapman creation of beaded white chiffon and pink peau de soie, guaranteed to make the girls in the audience coo in admiration and envy.

Ben Hecht's new book, "Perfidy," is sure to whip up a storm of controversy. He lashes out at some revered religious and political leaders, including David Ben Gurion . . . Johnnie Ray's musical director, Herman Kapp, will waltz down the aisle with Sheila Gallagher, a beautiful actress from the English films on Oct. 14.

New twosome at the Stork Club's table 50: Lawyer Roy Cohn and Ina Balin of the stage and screen . . . Maurice Chevalier is preparing 13 television films in Paris, for worldwide distribution next Fall. They're titled "Maurice de Paris," and he fills a jacques - of - all trades role on the shows — as host, singer, actor and guest interviewer.

The city is having its hands full with the new Children's Zoo in Central Park. The first crisis came when two monkeys displayed in an old - fashioned hurdy - gurdy exhibit went berserk. Then a duck and two chickens escaped and had to be snared, blocks away, by park officers. The miniature pony is getting less and less miniature by the day, because she's expecting a baby, and a small cow is showing signs of very anti-social behavior. What's more, the police have received a dozen complaints from residents of 5th Ave. who have been awakened at 4 a.m. by crowing roosters. Otherwise, everything's fine.

David Merrick's rumorers are everywhere spreading casting notes bout the musical version of "I Can Get It For You Wholesale." Take your choice, they're naming everyone from Bobby Darin to Vic Damone for the leading role . . . Marilyn Monroe is said to be seeking a handsome — and brand new — leading man to play opposite her in her new flicker, "Illicit," which is about a young Midwestern matron who accompanies her husband on a trip to Athens and falls in love with a Greek youth.

Bette Davis, whose next cinema effort is "Pocketful of Miracles," evidently isn't hoping for any miracles in her private life. With four marriages behind her, she exploded when queried about a possible fifth try: "I should say not! I'd only marry again if I found a man who had $15,000,000 and would sign over half of it to me before the marriage and guarantee he'd be dead within a year" . . . There's some talk in the trade that Dick Clark may join the Sal Donafede stable. Sal manages Dion.

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

PINWORMS AND THE NEIGHBORS

Mrs. V. H. writes: "In our neighborhood a rumor is spreading like a bad tumor and there are several mothers who won't let their children associate with a nice 6 year old girl. She comes from a clean home but she once had an occurrence of worms. Her mother claims she got rid of them by giving her daughter a laxative and that the child has not been bothered since.

"But one lady in the neighborhood, a nurse, claims it was not a thorough enough measure against worms, and if the child did not get the right medicine she would become totally infested with worms in time. This would lead to nervous disorders of the brain and could make her mentally unbalanced."

Rumors do more harm than many diseases and it is unfortunate that this nurse talked out of turn. Worms do not affect the brain. They may cause abdominal distress and diarrhea. Severe infestations may lead to listlessness, anemia and malnutrition. But the diagnosis is evident long before this point is reached.

The laxative this child received may have contained worm medicine, which cured the condition. In addition to all this, the mother may have thought she saw a pinworm but was mistaken.

At any rate, the neighbors are acting uncharitably in segregating this little girl. Someone should take the bull by the horns and settle the problem before the feelings of this youngster get hurt.

HEART DISEASE PHOBIA

A. S. writes: I'm 30 years old and have a terrible fear of heart disease. I get check-ups every now and then and the doctor insists my heart is sound. How can I overcome this fear?

REPLY

Abnormal fears (phibias) are psychiatric problems. Why not discuss this situation with the physician who examines your heart? The next time you see him, say "Why am I so afraid of heart trouble?" instead of "Is my heart normal?"

DIABETIC KIN

R. T. writes: Why is it that many diabetics have no known relative with the disease?

REPLY

Diabetes often escapes detection in older persons, especially when the condition is mild. In addition, some people die or are killed before they develop the disease. These situations make family medical histories inaccurate and incomplete.

TONING THE MUSCLES

R. V. writes: Does walking tone the muscles of other parts of the body as well as those of the legs?

REPLY

Yes, especially if the arms are swung from the shoulders and the walker breathes deeply and pulls in the abdominal muscles.

NCOTINE STAINS

T. K. writes: Is smoking deleterious to the complexion?

REPLY

The skin of the face is not affected but yellowed fingers result when the cigaret is held upside down, allowing the smoke to curl between the digits. Occasionally a smoker's lip becomes irritated.

SORE THROAT

E. C. writes: I have had sore throat for six months but the doctor assures me I do not have a growth. Do you think I ought to have further tests?

REPLY

Yes. A sore throat lasting six months may stem from nervousness or a specific infection.

HEBERDEN'S NODES

A. L. writes: Is there any cure for painful lumps on the first joints of the index fingers?

REPLY

No. These lumps (Heberden's nodes) will persist but pain disappears in time.

DEAR ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You may not believe this, but I have been married to a man for 34 years, and I still have never seen his paycheck. (He has an excellent white-collar job.) Nor have I seen any of his insurance policies, but I know he carries lots of insurance. I have no idea how much money he has in the bank, nor do I know if the mortgage on our house is paid. My monthly allowance is so small I am ashamed to tell you what it is. We have never had a vacation. He says we can't afford it. We are not getting any younger. I think I should have a complete understanding of our financial affairs. He says it is none of my business. It's his money. How can I change things? —WAR HORSE'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: After 34 years of silence, it would be pretty difficult to teach an old war horse new tricks. Ask him if he wants to bring you up-to-date on the family finances, or would he rather you asked his banker, lawyer and insurance agent? You are his partner, you know.

DEAR ABBY: I know you are going to say that this is just puppy love, but believe me, it is not. I may be only 14 years old, but I know this is the real thing. Peter is 16, and he feels the same way about it. Our parents laugh at us when we say we are in love, and want to get married when we are through school. We have gone together for four months, two weeks and three days. How can we prove to the world that this is really love? —J AND J

DEAR J AND J: Go with each other another "five years."

DEAR ABBY: We are two high school graduates who are interested in becoming airline hostesses. We want to know if an airline hostess is allowed to wear glasses? Do their teeth have to be perfectly straight? What about height and weight? Can you help us? —FUTURE HOSTESSES WE HOPE

DEAR FUTURE: Write to the personnel director of the airline in which you are interested. Each company has its own prerequisites.

DEAR ABBY: Have you a little space in your column for a tip that might save somebody's life or home? Tell women that if the grease should catch fire while frying or making doughnuts, a few big handsful of flour or cornmeal will smother it fast. I put out a fire that way last week, and the blaze was two feet high. Thank you. —LUCKY

DEAR J AND J: Go with each other another "five years."

DEAR ABBY: We are two high school graduates who are interested in becoming airline hostesses. We want to know if an airline hostess is allowed to wear glasses? Do their teeth have to be perfectly straight? What about height and weight? Can you help us? —FUTURE HOSTESSES WE HOPE

DEAR FUTURE: Write to the personnel director of the airline in which you are interested. Each company has its own prerequisites.

DEAR ABBY: Have you a little space in your column for a tip that might save somebody's life or home? Tell women that if the grease should catch fire while frying or making doughnuts, a few big handsful of flour or cornmeal will smother it fast. I put out a fire that way last week, and the blaze was two feet high. Thank you. —LUCKY

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to Dear Abby, care of News-Star.

Second Rodeo Is Scheduled In West Monroe

Another rodeo has been announced by the West Monroe Riding Club because of the bad weather during the September rodeo. The next rodeo will be held in November at the West Monroe arena.

The dates for the rodeo have been set at Nov. 3, 4 and 5 with all performances to begin at 7:30 p.m. at the grounds located on Harrell Road. The Sunday Nov. 5 performance will be at 2:30 p.m.

Second Rodeo Is Scheduled In West Monroe

Another rodeo has been announced by the West Monroe Riding Club because of the bad weather during the September rodeo. The next rodeo will be held in November at the West Monroe arena.

The dates for the rodeo have been set at Nov. 3, 4 and 5 with all performances to begin at 7:30 p.m. at the grounds located on Harrell Road. The Sunday Nov. 5 performance will be at 2:30 p.m.

The sale of tickets will start October 30, at various businesses in West Monroe. The places will be announced later in the week.

Tri-State Cattle Co., of West Monroe will produce the rodeo. The company, according to S. G. Nolan, club president, has held a lot of rodeos all over the southern states with quite a success.

It was pointed out by Nolan that every effort would be made to use as much local talent as possible and it should be remembered that a large number of cowboys from the Monroe-West Monroe area are real competitors in some of the largest rodeos in the country.

Owls In Bid To Get Back On Win Road

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Rice University Owls try to get back in the victory column Saturday night by challenging the undefeated but tied Florida Gators.

The Owls have had two weeks in which to reflect on the 0-24 trouncing Georgia Tech handed them after they had taken an impressive 16-3 victory over Louisiana State. Rice moves into Saturday's game a seven-point favorite over a Florida squad that has defeated Clemson, 21-17, and Tulane, 14-3, while being tied by Florida State, 3-3.

A crowd of about 35,000 is expected for the resumption of an intersectional series in which Rice holds a 3-1-1 edge.

Florida holds narrow edges on both offense and defense.

In three games Florida has gained an average of 179 yards rushing and allowed 96 yards. The Gators have averaged 96 yards on passes and allowed 78.

Rice in two games has averaged 110 yards on the ground and 86 in the air. Rice opponents have averaged 104 yards rushing and 139 yards passing.

Billy Cox, the Rice starting man-under, has completed nine of 19 passes for 136 yards, while Larry Libertore, the 138-pound Gator starter, has completed eight of 19 for 156 yards.

Libertore also is Florida's leading ground gainer, netting 151 yards in 38 carries. Randall Kerbow, who alternates with Cox, is the Rice leader with 57 yards in 17 chances.

Don Goodman, the third leading Florida rusher, may miss the game because of a fractured jaw bone. Jim O'Donnell, a sophomore who has carried the ball only three times this season, has been running at the fullback spot during Goodman's absence.

Injuries have kept Johnny Nichols and Larry Anthony, the Rice starting guards, out of contact work all week but both are expected to play.

Boston Red Sox Ask Waivers On Two Veterans

BOSTON (AP) — The Bostn Red Sox asked waivers on pitcher Tom Brewer and catcher Joe Ginsberg Friday, in order to release the veterans unconditionally and to protect youngsters in the farm system.

Brewer has been with the Sox eight seasons and was plagued with arm trouble through 1961 when he pitched only 42 innings in 10 games, winning three and losing two. His name was on the disabled list much of the year.

Good Texas Team Plays Winless OU

DALLAS (AP)—A Texas team many think might become the finest of them all meets winless Oklahoma Saturday in a game that could be close because of the tradition of one of football's deepest rivalries.

It is the first time for Oklahoma to face Texas with only losses on its record and the forecasters can see little reason to predict the situation might be changed here.

Texas, No. 4 in the nation, leading the country in offense and victorious in three straight games by heavy margins, will be after its fourth straight victory over the Sooners.

But it isn't often that one of the teams beats the other badly in this renewal of a series that started back in 1900.

Moving along at a 504-yard per game clip and with its Jim Saxton running all over the field, Texas swept down California 28-3, Texas Tech 42-14 and Washington State 41-8.

Coach Darrell Royal is frank in stating that he doesn't know himself just how good Texas really is. But he ventured the prediction that he would surely find out against Oklahoma.

The Sooners lost to Notre Dame 19-6 and Iowa State 21-15 to make it six defeats in their last seven games. But the Big Red offense appeared to have hit its stride in the last half of the Iowa State game, with Bob Page going in at quarterback to move Oklahoma 76 and 80 yards for touchdowns.

Royal is the former Oklahoma player who came to Texas to pull the Longhorns out of the doldrums. He did it in a big way, breaking the Oklahoma stranglehold in his second season. The Sooners had won six straight when Texas finally changed things 15-14 in 1958.

REBEL OFFENSE FALTERS

Knights Outbattle Rebels For 7-0 District Victory

The West Monroe Rebels' hard-hitting offense faultered several times last night on key drives, and the Rebels were beaten by the Woodlawn Knights, 7-0, in a District 1-AAA clash.

The loss gave the Rebels a 3-2 season record and an even 1-1 district record, while leaving Woodlawn with a perfect 6-0 season record and a strong 4-0 district record.

	West Monroe	Woodlaw
First Downs	10	14
Yards Rushing	141	173
Yards Passing	70	105
Passes	5-12	8-12
Passes Interc. By	1	1
Total Yards	211	278
Punts	3-32.0	4-23.2
Penalties	5-45	5-65
Fumbles Lost	2	2

Woodlawn scored the second time they got their hands on the ball and then held West Monroe to take the victory.

The Knights took over on downs on their own 20 yards marker with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and powered the 80 yards in only eight plays with fullback Tommy Linder sweeping left end for the final six and the touchdown. Halfback Jay Gauld then ran the extra point to make it 7-0 with 1:52 remaining in the first period.

After that the Knights' were able to threaten only once—they reached the Rebel 13 late in the third quarter before losing the ball on a fumble.

West Monroe started several strong threats, but either fumbled, had pass interceptions or lost the ball on downs.

Again it was the passing of quarterback Billy Laird and the hard running of Linder that was the main cog in the mighty Woodlawn machine. Laird completed seven of 11 attempts for 103 yards and Linder carried 13 times for 67 yards.

Woodlawn took the opening kickoff and moved 44 yards in seven plays before Charle Van Zile intercepted one of Larid's passes on his own 18 and returned it to Woodlawn's 48.

After taking the kickoff, Larid hit his end Ted Bonds on a 16 yard pass play that gave the Knights a first down on the Rebels 35. The Knights then rolled up two more first downs in four plays to the West Monroe 38.

Laird threw an incomplete pass and then the Knights drew a clipping penalty to force them back to the 50 yard line with a second and 21 to go situation. Gould pulled in a pass from Laird that worked or 14 yards, but Van Zile moved in on the next play and picked off Laird's pass on the Rebels' 18 and fought his way back to the Knights' 48.

The Rebels then marched down to the 20 yard line before losing the ball on downs. J. U. Liner, West Monroe's 200 pound fullback, was the big hoss in this drive, as well as for the rest of the night, but an illegal procedure penalty on third down, needing three on the 18 slowed the drive and the Knights held them on the 20.

This time Woodlwan put together a strong drive that ended in their TD.

A key play in the drive was a 33 yard pass play from Laird to end Wayne Davis that set up a first and ten on the Rebels 28. Two plays later Linder broke loose for a 20 yard gallop around left end that gave the Knights a first and goal on the four.

On the next play Linder circled left on the same play and went into the end zone virtually untouched for the TD. Gould then hit off left tackle and crossed the goal line for the extra point.

Following the kickoff the teams exchanged fumbles. Chuck Crawford fell on a fumble lost by the Knights' quarterback Joe Geter, and the Rebels were in business on their own 33 with 7:20 left in the first half.

Liner did most of the power work as the Rebels moved to within four yards of paydirt, but once again could not penetrate the Woodlawn goal and were forced to hand over the ball with only 54 seconds of the first half left.

Woodlawn operated deep in its own territory almost all of the last half, but fought off several Rebel bids for touchdowns and retained its 7-0 margin.

With eleven seconds remaining in the third stanza Woodlawn attempted its first punt of the night, but Jewel McBroom broke through to block halfback Paul Clark's boot In the mad scramble that followed the Rebels came up with the ball on Woodlawn's 34, but drew a 15 yard penalty that moved the ball back to the 49 yard line.

Quarterback Fred Newton hit Woody Woodcock on a pass play that clicked for 37 yards and first down on the 13. However, the Woodlawn defense stiffened once again and brought the Rebels to a halt on the three.

Woodlawn punted out to their own 35 and the Rebels once again started a futal drive.

On the first play the Newton to Woodcock pass worked for 14 yards and a first on the 21 and on the next play end Paul Hodgood, running from the slot end position, picked up seven yards to the 14. Woodcock then powered for seven more, and a first and goal on the seven yard marker, but once again the Rebels faultered. This time Woodcock was hit hard and fumbled and Woodlawn recovered on the four.

The teams exchanged punts and Woodlawn nipped the last West Monroe effort when James Rice intercepted a pass from Newton on his own 15 with 2:19 playing time remaining and Woodlawn ran out the clock.

Injury-Hurt Hawkeyes To Face Indiana

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Injury-riddled Iowa, its hopes pinned on the passing of Matt Szykowny, opens its Big Ten campaign against Indiana Saturday.

Despite the loss of his top two runners — quarterback Wilburn Hollis and left half Larry Ferguson — Hawkeye Coach Jerry Burns says "we will beat Indiana."

Second ranked Iowa, which survived a 35-34 scare at Southern California last week, is favored. The Hoosiers have lost both their games.

Although injuries, which may sideline Hollis and Ferguson for the season, obviously have hurt Iowa's ground game, Burns is hoping the play of Szykowny—a good passer—may give the Hawkeyes more versatility.

Szykowny is a junior letterman previously used only as a spot passer. He has completed three of five passes this fall for 47 yards and one touchdown.

The Hawkeyes also can call on the running of left half Joe Williams, a converted fullback, and fullback Bill Perkins, a former end.

Both were standouts in their new roles against Southern Cal last week.

Indiana is a strong defensive team which has lacked scoring punch in previous games. The Hoosiers shut out Wisconsin's feared passing attack last week but lost 6-3 to a pair of field goals.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves have purchased the contracts of right-handed pitchers Dick Smith and Dennis Ribant from the Austin club of the Texas League, and that of infielder Mickey Sinnerud from the Yakima club of the Northwest League, President John McHale said Friday.

Sinnerud, 21, of Beaverton, Ore., hit .290 at Yakima and had 70 RBI.

Owls In Bid To Get Back On Win Road

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Rice University Owls try to get back in the victory column Saturday night by challenging the undefeated but tied Florida Gators.

The Owls have had two weeks in which to reflect on the 0-24 trouncing Georgia Tech handed them after they had taken an impressive 16-3 victory over Louisiana State. Rice moves into Saturday's game a seven-point favorite over a Florida squad that has defeated Clemson, 21-17, and Tulane, 14-3, while being tied by Rice, 3-3.

A crowd of about 35,000 is expected for the resumption of an intersectional series in which Rice holds a 3-1-1 edge.

Florida holds narrow edges on both offense and defense.

In three games Florida has gained an average of 179 yards rushing and allowed 96 yards. The Gators have averaged 96 yards on passes and allowed 78.

Rice in two games has averaged 110 yards on the ground and 86 in the air. Rice opponents have averaged 104 yards rushing and 139 yards passing.

Billy Cox, the Rice starting man-under, has completed nine of 19 passes for 136 yards, while Larry Libertore, the 138-pound Gator starter, has completed eight of 19 for 156 yards.

Libertore also is Florida's leading ground gainer, netting 151 yards in 38 carries. Randall Kerbow, who alternates with Cox, is the Rice leader with 57 yards in 17 chances.

Don Goodman, the third leading Florida rusher, may miss the game because of a fractured jaw which he suffered last week. But Jim O'Donnell, a sophomore, has come on well enough to play. Jim Saxton ran on the ball only three times this season, has been running at the fullback spot during Goodman's absence.

Injuries have kept Johnny Nichols and Larry Anthony, the Rice starting guards, out of contact work a good part of the week. They are not expected to play.

Good Texas Team Plays Winless OU

DALLAS (AP)—A Texas team many think might be the finest of them all meets winless Oklahoma Saturday in a game that could be close because of the tradition of one of football's deepest rivalries.

It is the first time for Oklahoma to face Texas with only losses on its record and the forecasters can see little reason to predict the situation might be reversed.

Texas, No. 4 in the nation, leading the country in offense and victorious in three straight games by heavy margins, will seek its fourth straight victory over the Sooners.

But it isn't often that one of the teams beats the other badly in this renewal of a series that started back in 1900.

Moving along at a 504-yard per game clip and with its Jim Saxton running all over the field, Texas swept down California 28-3, Texas Tech 42-14 and Washington State 41-8.

Coach Darrell Royal is frank in stating that he doesn't know himself just how good Texas really is. But he ventured the prediction that he would surely find out against Oklahoma.

The Sooners lost to Notre Dame 19-6 and Iowa State 21-15 to make it six defeats in their last seven games. But the Big Red offense appeared to have hit its stride in the last half of the Iowa State game, with Bob Page going in at quarterback to move Oklahoma 76 and 80 yards for touchdowns.

Royal is the former Oklahoma player who came to Texas to pull the Longhorns out of the doldrums. He did it in a big way, breaking the Oklahoma stranglehold in his second season. The Sooners had won six straight when Texas finally changed things 15-14 in 1958.

Boston Red Sox Ask Waivers On Two Veterans

BOSTON (AP) — The Bostn Red Sox asked waivers on pitcher Tom Brewer and catcher Joe Ginsberg Friday, in order to release the veterans unconditionally and to protect youngsters in the farm system.

Brewer has been with the Sox eight seasons and was plagued with arm trouble through 1961 when he pitched only 42 innings in 10 games, winning three and losing two. His name was on the disabled list much of the year.

Knights Outbattle Rebels For 7-0 District Victory

The West Monroe Rebels' hard-hitting offense faultered several times last night on key drives, and the Rebels were beaten by the Woodlawn Knights, 7-0, in a District 1-AAA clash.

The loss gave the Rebels a 3-2 season record and an even 1-1 district record, while leaving Woodlawn with a perfect 6-0 season record and a strong 4-0 district record.

Woodlawn scored the second time they got their hands on the ball and then held West Monroe to take the victory.

The Knights took over on downs on their own 20 yards marker with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and powered the 80 yards in only eight plays with fullback Tommy Linder sweeping left end for the score. Halfback Jay Gauld then ran with the ball to make it 7-0 with 1:52 remaining in the first period.

After that the Knights' were able to threaten only once—they reached the Rebel 13 late in the third quarter before losing the ball on a fumble.

West Monroe started several strong threats, but either fumbled, had passes interceptions or lost the ball on downs.

Again it was the passing of quarterback Billy Laird and the hard running of Linder that was the main cog in the mighty Woodlawn machine. Laird completed seven of 11 attempts for 103 yards and Linder carried 13 times for 67 yards.

Woodlawn took the opening kickoff and moved 44 yards in seven plays before Charle Van Zile intercepted one of Larid's passes on his own 18 and returned it to Woodlawn's 30.

After taking the kickoff, Larid and hit end Ted Bonds on a 16 yard pass play that gave the Knights a first down on the Rebels 35. The Knights then picked up two more first downs in four plays to the West Monroe 38.

Laird then overthrew an incomplete pass and then the Knights drew a clipping penalty to force them back to the 50 yard line with a second and 21 to go situation. Gould pulled in a pass from Laird that worked or 14 yards, but Van Zile picked off Laird's pass on the Rebels' 18 and fought his way back to the Knights' 48.

The Rebels then marched down to the 20 yard line before losing the ball on downs. J. U. Liner, West Monroe's 200 pound fullback, was the big hoss in this drive, as well as for the rest of the night, but an illegal procedure penalty on third down, needing three on the 18 stopped the drive and the Knights held them on downs.

This time Woodlwan put together a strong drive that ended in their TD.

A key play in the drive was a 33 yard pass play from Laird to end Wayne Davis that set up a first and ten on the Rebels 28. Two plays later Linder broke loose for a 20 yard gallop around left end that gave the Knights a first and goal on the four.

On the next play Linder circled left on the same play and went into the end zone virtually untouched for the TD. Gould then hit off left tackle and crossed the goal line for the extra point.

Following the kickoff the teams exchanged fumbles. Chuck Crawford fell on a fumble lost by the Knights' quarterback Joe Geter, and the Rebels were in possession on their own 33 with 7:20 left in the first half.

Liner did most of the power work as the Rebels moved to within four yards of paydirt, but once again they could not penetrate the Woodlawn goal and were forced to hand over the ball with only 54 seconds of the first half left.

Woodlawn operated deep in its own territory almost all of the last half, but fought off several Rebel bids for touchdowns and retained its 7-0 margin.

With eleven seconds remaining in the third stanza Woodlawn attempted its first punt of the night, but Jewel McBroom broke through to block halfback Paul Clark's boot. In the mad scramble that followed the Rebels came up with the ball on Woodlawn's 34, but drew a 15 yard penalty that moved the ball back to the 49 yard line.

Quarterback Fred Newton hit Woody Woodcock on a pass play that clicked for 37 yards and first down on the 13. However, the Woodlawn defense stiffened once again and brought the Rebels to a halt on the three.

Woodlawn punted out to their own 35 and the Rebels once again started a fatal drive.

On the first play the Newton to Woodcock pass worked for 14 yards and a first on the 21 and on the next play end Paul Hodgood, running from the slot end position, picked up seven yards to the 14. Woodcock then powered for seven more, and a first and goal on the seven yard marker. But Woodcock was then hit hard and fumbled and Woodlawn recovered on the four.

The teams exchanged punts and Woodlawn nipped the last West Monroe effort when James Rice intercepted a pass from Newton with 2:19 playing time remaining and Woodlawn ran out the clock.

Injury-Hurt Hawkeyes To Face Indiana

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Injury-riddled Iowa, its hopes pinned on the passing of Matt Szykowny, opens its Big Ten campaign against Indiana Saturday.

Despite the loss of his top two runners — quarterback Wilburn Hollis and left half Larry Ferguson — Hawkeye Coach Jerry Burns says "we will beat Indiana."

Second-ranked Iowa, which survived a 35-34 scare at Southern California last week, is favored. The Hoosiers have lost both their games.

Although injuries, which may sideline Hollis and Ferguson for the season, obviously have hurt Iowa's ground game, Burns is hoping the play of Szykowny—a good passer—may give the Hawkeyes more versatility.

Szykowny is a junior letterman previously used only as a spot passer. He has completed three of five passes this fall for 47 yards.

The Hawkeyes also can call on the speed of left half Joe Williams, a converted fullback, and fullback Bill Perkins, a former end.

Both were standouts in their new roles against Southern Cal last week.

Indiana is a strong defensive team which has lacked scoring punch in previous games. The Hoosiers shut out Wisconsin's feared passing attack last week but lost 6-3 to a pair of field goals.

Braves Purchase

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves have purchased the contracts of right-handed pitchers Dick Smith and Dennis Ribant from the Austin club of the Texas League, and infielder Mickey Sinnerud from the Yakima club of the Northwest League, President John McHale said today.

Smith, 18, of Birmingham, Ala., won one and lost three at Austin. Ribant, 20, of Detroit, won 17 and lost two at Quad City of the Midwest League, then won one and lost two at Austin.

Sinnerud, 21, of Beaverton, Ore., hit .290 at Yakima and had 70 RBI.

It was Neville's sixth straight win and its third victory in 2-A competion. They have not been beaten since they lost to State Champion Pineville 20-19 in last year's AA semi-finals.

Neville took the opening kickoff and marched all the way for 64 yards and the first score.

The drive was climaxed when a pass from quarterback Jerry Jones was deflected by a Ruston player and bounced into Roberts' for 20 yards and the first score.

Payne then, set sail on a 31-yard run and followed for 17 yards and the second TD still in the second TD.

Still in the openion period, Wilson ran 33 yards for the next score and Jimmy Howard 36 for the fourth. Howard missed the point after his own touchdown for the only PAT failure of the night.

In the second quarter Payne returned a Ruston punt 70 yards for the fifth touchdown. It was hot 34-0.

There was no scoring in the third quarter, but right halfback Jimmy Gilley went 31-yards in the fourth period to add the total to 40-0 and Howard added another point and it was 41-0.

Nick White, Herschal Walker, John Segars and Tom Sparks stood out for Neville in the line.

The backfield stars were as numerous as the men who scored the touchdowns. In fact, they were largely the same.

Even in losing, Ruston got good performances from backfield men Melvin Ray Shows, Kenneth Monroe and Charles Kirby.

In the Bearcat line Larry Rabb, Wesley Irby and Andy Clark stood out.

Neville's next game is with Tallulah in Monroe October 27.

United States Leads Britain In Ryder Cup

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

LYTHAM-ST. ANNES, England (AP) — The United States stormed to a 6-2 lead over Britain at the end of the foursomes in the Ryder Cup golf competition Friday and became 4-1 favorites to retain the golden trophy after Saturday's 16 singles.

Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper teamed brilliantly to win both their foursomes, including a 2 and 1 triumph over the highly rated British pair of Dai Rees and Ken Bousfield while Art Wall and Jay Hebert shared the golfing glory by doing the same.

A crowd of about 17,000 excited fans streamed and surged over the 6,635-yard Royal Lytham and St. Annes links. Par is 35-36—71 but it varies with the weather.

The Americans took a 3-1 lead at the end of the morning matches, which were played in warm sunshine with only a gentle breeze whispering over the course.

Two 12-foot putts before a huge, silent crowd at the 18th green in the evening sunlight helped the Americans to their big lead. Hebert sank one for a 1-up victory and Dow Finsterwald calmly rolled in another from the same distance in the last shot of the day.

Jerry Barber, U.S. captain, dropped himself from the morning matches then rested Doug Ford and Gene Littler, reigning U.S. Open champion, in the afternoon. Instead, Barber picked himself, partnered by Finsterwald, to replace Ford and Littler in the afternoon.

Barber and Finsterwald, playing in the very last match against Tom Halliburton and Neil Coles were 4 up after 11 holes and seemed to be coasting.

Then the British hit back, won three of the next six holes and took Barber and his partner to the 18th green.

Finsterwald sent a 12-foot putt into the cup for a 1-up victory.

Scores in the foursomes in which players take alternate strokes were:

Morning rounds:

Christy O'Connor and Peter Alliss, Britain, defeated Ford and Littler, 4 and 3.

Wall and Hebert defeated John Panton and Bernard Hunt, Britain, 4 and 3.

Palmer and Casper defeated Rees and Bousfield, Britain, 2 and 1.

Bill Collins and Mike Souchak defeated Haliburton and Coles, Britain, 1 up.

Afternoon rounds:

Hebert and Wall defeated O'Connor and Alliss, 1 up.

Palmer and Casper defeated Panton and Hunt, 5 and 4.

Rees and Bousfield defeated Panton and Hunt, 5 and 4.

Rees and Bousfield defeated Collins and Souchak, United States, 4 and 2.

Barber and Finsterwald defeated Haliburton and Coles, 1 up.

Sixteen singles will be played Saturday — again over 18 holes — with eight decided in the morning and eight in the afternoon. Each match counts a point.

Fred Hutchinson Voted Manager Of Year In NL

NEW YORK (AP) — Cincinnati's Fred Hutchinson was a run-away selection as the National League's manager of the year for 1961 — but he might not know about it yet.

Hutchinson was on a leisurely three or four day drive from Cincinnati to his home in Bradenton, Fla., when the results of The Associated Press poll was announced Friday and could not be contacted immediately.

The 42-year-old pilot received all but one of the 17 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The only dissenting ballot named Alvin Dark of the third place San Francisco Giants.

Hutchinson, with important contributions from new acquisitions pitcher Joey Jay and third baseman Gene Frese, and steady hitting from Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson, converted the Reds from a second division club to the National League champions.

El Dorado Gets By Lions On Strong Defense, 14-0

EL DORADO, Ark. (Special) — The El Dorado Wildcats, scoring on a razzle-dazzle 60 yard pass and run play in the first quarter, then again on a 70-yard drive, which consumed 12 plays early in the fourth period, won a hard fought victory over the Ouachita Lions last night 14-0.

Halfback Jerry Moody and quarterback Gary Elia led a potent Wildcat offense which raked up 199 yards on the ground, while halfbacks Timmy Gordy and Butch Oglesbee provided most of the spark for the Lions. Gordy ground out 73 yards on 14 tries, and Oglesbee had 38 on 8 carries.

Late in the second quarter Elia intercepted a Lion pass on the Ouachita 47 and returned it to the 23. On the play a clipping penality was called against the Wildcats on Ouachita's 45 and the ball was moved back to El Dorado's 40 where they were given first and ten. Lightning struck fast then as the Wildcats covered the 60 yards to paydirt on one play.

Moody took a handoff from Elia and swung to the right, then he whirled and found Elia open on about the Ouachita 35, hit him with a pass and Elia out ran everybody from there for the score. Moody then kicked the extra point, and El Dorado led at the half 7-0.

Ouachita took the second half kickoff on the 13, returned to the 34, and from there mounted their most serious threat of the night. The sustained drive went all the way to the El Dorado one foot line, where the tough Wildcats held on downs. Gordy and Oglesbee ate up most of the yardage on the drive as they alternated carries.

After gaining a first and goal on the five yard-line, the Lions punched inside the Wildcat one in three plays but were stopped cold for no gain on fourth down and had to relinquish the ball.

El Dorado immediately quick kicked out to the 39 and Ouachita drove back down to the 30. On fourth down the Lions failed to pick up a first, and El Dorado took over.

From there the Wildcats started a 70-yard scoring drive which consumed 12 plays. Sophomore fullback Jim Thomas went the final five yards for the score with 10:21 seconds left to play in the game. Moody kicked the extra point to finish the scoring for the night.

Ouachita's other most serious drive came in the first period after El Dorado had failed to move the ball on the opening kickoff.

Taking over on their own 23 the Lions drove all the way to the Wildcats 10 yardline before losing the ball on downs. Oglesbee and Gordy were the big guns in this drive also as the Lions chalked up five first downs.

In the individual rushing department, aside from Gordy and Oglesbee, Bryant picked up eight yards on three carries, Traxler got six yards on two tries, and Warner lost 12 on nine carries.

Injuries May Slow NFL 11's This Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Injuries to key players will slow some teams Sunday when all 14 National Football League clubs square off with the Green Bay Packers visiting the Cleveland Browns in the day's top clash.

The Pittsburgh Steelers, winless after four starts, engage the Washington Redskins (also 0-4) at Pittsburgh and will have to play without quarterback Bobby Layne, who has an injured left side and may be out of action the remainder of the campaign.

The Los Angeles Rams (1-3) collide with the Lions at Detroit (2-2) and will be without middle linebacker Marlin McKeever, their weekend's 35-0 loss to the sizzling San Francisco 49ers. McKeever, like Layne, may be sidelined for the season.

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Colts (2-2) journey to Chicago to meet the Bears (2-2); the New York Giants (3-1) move into Dallas to face the Cowboys (3-1); the Philadelphia Eagles (3-1) invade St. Louis (2-2) to try to get even with the Cardinals for beating them 30-27 two weeks ago, and the 49ers (3-1), seeking their third straight shutout, tangle with the Vikings at Minnesota (1-3). Several of these teams have players benched because of injuries.

The Green Bay-Cleveland encounter brings together the third and fourth best defensive teams statistically. The Browns have yielded 887 yards rushing and passing in their four tests while the Packers have given up 1,043 yards. Cleveland is fourth in offense and Green Bay sixth.

The Browns' Milt Plum leads the NFL in passing, having completed 58 of 105 tosses. Green Bay's Bart Starr is fifth in passing with 51 completions in 90 pitches. The Packers have the No. 1 rusher in Jim Taylor, who has a fancy 6-yard average. Cleveland's Jim Brown is right behind Taylor although his average of 3.9 is below par for him. Brown and Taylor are both fullbacks. And the Packers have high scorer Paul Hornung, who has 64 points, 33 of which were scored in last weekend's 45-7 triumph over the Baltimore Colts.

Some 70,000 largest NFL crowd of the season, are expected to swarm Cleveland Stadium.

The San Francisco-Minnesota scrap must share some of the Sunday spotlight even through the 49ers are a 14-point favorite over the Vikings. The 49ers, top-ranked on offense and No. 2 on defense, will be out to hold the Vikings scoreless.

If they succeed, the 49ers will become the first NFL club in 27 years to score as many as three consecutive shutout victories. The 1934 Detroit Lions opened the season with a string of seven straight shutouts.

Irish Tackle Rival USC In Comeback Bid

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Comeback-bent Notre Dame aims for its third victory of the football season Saturday against an ancient rival, Southern California.

A crowd of about 55,000 is expected as the two schools meet for the 33rd time since 1926. The Irish have won 21 times, lost nine and there have been two ties.

Notre Dame broke an eight-game losing streak, longest in the school's history, by defeating the Trojans in Los Angeles 17-0 in the final game of the 1960 campaign.

The Irish this year show signs of regaining national football prestige. They have defeated Oklahoma 19-6 and Purdue 22-20 to climb to the No. 8 spot in the AP poll.

USC was defeated by Georgia Tech 27-7, bounced back to edge Southern Methodist 21-16, and last week was shaded by top-ranked Iowa 35-34 when a two-point conversion attempt in the final minute failed. The tight squeeze dumped Iowa from No. 1 to No. 2 in this week's poll.

Junior fullback Mike Lind, who ripped 101 yards against Oklahome, is expected to be ready to supplement Notre Dame's attack. He sat out the Purdue game with an injury.

The passing of Bill Nelson and running of Willie Brown have featured the Trojan offense. Nelson has hit on 18 of 42 tosses for 372 yards and three touchdowns. Brown has scampered 282 yards in 36 trips for a 7.8 average.

Against MSU, Brown gained 183 yards in 13 carries, including a 93-yard sprint which set a USC varsity record.

The Trojans, playing away from home for the first time this season, have not won at Notre Dame since 1939.

Detroit Rises-Up To Dump Boston College By 20-3

By JERRY GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Jerry Gross fired up Detroit's Titans with two long touchdown passes totaling 100 yards Friday night and they remained unbeaten with a 20-3 victory over Boston College.

The 170-pound junior quarterback had a brilliant night, gaining 196 yards passing despite a soggy ball.

He connected on a 43-yard scoring pass to Larry Vargo after Detroit took the opening kickoff and on a 57-yarder to Steve Stonebreaker in the third quarter.

A beefy Eagle line that averaged 224-pounds a man was no match for the 5-foot-9 Titan missile thrower who entered the game fourth in the nation's individual offense statistics. The victory was Detroit's third straight and Gross has passed for 611 yards in the three games, adding 91 yards rushing.

A 19-yard Gross pass set up Detroit's third touchdown, a two-yard run by Bill Allen just before the third quarter ended.

Boston College, moving well on the ground until it got inside Detroit's 20, could score only on a 29-yard field goal by Lou Kirouac. The boot from the 19-yard line made it 7-3 early in the third quarter.

But Detroit struck right back, going 78 yards in six plays with the Gross to Stonebreaker pass covering the last 57 yards.

The Titans threatened to score twice more in the first half but were stopped at the 12 and five yard line.

Blanda And Lee Lead Oilers To Tie With Boston

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — George Blanda kicked a dramatic 24 yard field goal five seconds before the final gun Friday night as the Houston Oilers tied Boston 31-31 in an American Football League game marked by the record passing performance of Jackie Lee.

Lee, who tossed for more than 400 yards in shattering the loop mark of 375, raced the clock after Boston grabbed a 31-28 edge on a Butch Songin to Gino Cappelletti pass just 50 seconds from the end.

Boston tried to give Houston the short pass and stop the long one but Lee's 25 yard pitch to Bill Gorman at the Boston 17 set up the tying Blanda kick.

Cappelletti, the AFL top scorer, made two consecutive spectacular catches covering the final 20 yards and it appeared the Patriots had won the game for Mike Holovak making his debut as head coach.

But Lee's great clutch trigger work enabled the defending AFL champions to snap a three game losing streak and give a lift to coach Lou Rymkus, who has been rumored on his way out.

Lee fired long scoring passes to Groman and Charlie Hennigan in the second period after Boston had taken an early lead.

Lee's 51 yard toss to Hennigan set up Charlie Tolar's three yard scoring dash in the third period. That wiped out the lead Boston manufactured when Larry Garron ran back the second half kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown.

Mickey Wright Heads Field In PGA Golf Play

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Defending champion Mickey Wright held the lead in the Ladies PGA Championship despite a 77 Friday to go with her best-of-career first round 67.

Winds of 25 to 35 miles an hour plauged the golfers.

"I was then over in over-all strokes for today's round, as compared with my fine round of yesterday," said Miss Wright, who lives in San Diego, Calif., "but I took 11 more putts—so I'm not blaming everything on the wind."

Shirley Englehorn of Spokane had a 74 Friday, the best round of the day, and crept up to be only two strokes behind Miss Wright at the halfway mark. She never has won a tournament.

Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham had a 76 and is in third place with 149.

George Bayer Ups His Lead In Golf Open

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Big George Bayer of Miami slipped to a one-over-par 71 Friday but increased his lead to two strokes at the halfway point in the $20,000 Ontario Open Golf Tournament.

Bayer, who set the course record with 64 Thursday, has a 36-hole total of 135.

Young Bobby Nichols of Midland, Tex., was second with 137. The former Texas A&M player also shot a 71 over the wind-lashed Whispering Lakes Golf course.

Tied for third at 138 were Billy Maxwell of Dallas and Dave Hill of Denver. Both shot 69s Friday. They and veteran Lloyd Mangrum of Apple Valley, Calif., were the only three players to break par 36-34—70.

Bayer started the round with a two-under par 34 on the front side despite three-putting the first hole. He overcame this error by making consecutive birdies on six, seven and eight.

But on the back nine Bayer, the longest hitter in golf, began spraying his shots. He frequently scrambled to get his par. On the 12th hole Bayer got in deep trouble when his second shot landed in the water hazard. With his penalty stroke he made a double bogey six on the hole.

Jon Gustin of Gladwyne, Pa., who was one shot back of Bayer after the first round, skidded to a 74 for a 143 total.

Tournament favorite Gary Player of South Africa had a 72 for a 142 total. Player said he was bothered by the wind and was inaccurate with his iron shots.

SIXTH STRAIGHT WIN

Neville Takes 2-AA Crown By Walloping Ruston, 41-0

RUSTON (Special) — The fast and furious Tigers of Neville High wrapped up a successful defense of their district 2-AA title by completely routing arch rival Ruston 41-0 here last night.

Striking with lightning swiftness, the Tigers scored four touchdowns in the opening quarter for a quick 27-0 lead.

Halfback Robert Payne led Neville's scoring with two touchdowns, while four other players cashed in on trips to paydirt.

Fullback Ralph Roberts, and halfbacks Mike Wilson, Jimmy Howard, and Jimmy Gilley also scored.

Howard toed five of six extra point attempts.

Neville added seven more points in the second quarter for a 34-0 halftime advantage then pushed over a final seven in the last period.

It was Neville's sixth straight win and its third victory in 2-A competion. They have not been beaten since they lost to State Champion Pineville 20-19 in last year's AA semi-finals.

Neville took the opening kickoff and marched all the way for 64 yards and the first score.

The drive was climaxed when a pass from quarterback Jerry Jones was deflected by a Ruston player and bounced into Roberts' for 20 yards and the first score.

Payne then, set sail on a 31-yard run and followed for 17 yards and the second TD still in the second TD.

Still in the openion period, Wilson ran 33 yards for the next score and Jimmy Howard 36 for the fourth. Howard missed the point after his own touchdown for the only PAT failure of the night.

In the second quarter Payne returned a Ruston punt 70 yards for the fifth touchdown. It was hot 34-0.

There was no scoring in the third quarter, but right halfback Jimmy Gilley went 31-yards in the fourth period to add the total to 40-0 and Howard added another point and it was 41-0.

Nick White, Herschal Walker, John Segars and Tom Sparks stood out for Neville in the line.

The backfield stars were as numerous as the men who scored the touchdowns. In fact, they were largely the same.

Even in losing, Ruston got good performances from backfield men Melvin Ray Shows, Kenneth Monroe and Charles Kirby.

In the Bearcat line Larry Rabb, Wesley Irby and Andy Clark stood out.

Field Goal Edges Miami In 4th, 9-7

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Big Jerry Hillebrand pounced on a fumble deep in Miami territory, then turned the big break into a 37-yard, fourth quarter field goal that gave Colorado's Buffaloes a 9-7 football victory over injury-ridden Miami Friday night.

The field goal, which made the score 9-0, turned out to be the decisive blow after Miami surged 62 yards to score on a 25-yard pass from John Bennett to Bill Biller with 4:44 left in the game.

It was a big win for Colorado, for the Buffaloes hope to return here as the Big Eight representative next New Year's Day and a loss would have made them less attractive to the Orange Bowl committee.

Hillebrand's fumble recovery and field goal was the second big break for the Buffaloes at a crucial moment.

In the inital period, confronted with a fourth down at their own five, the Buffaloes got out to the 20 on a roughing-the-kicker penalty, then charged to a touchdown on a drive that totaled 99 yards.

Gale Weidner hit Chuck McBride and Loren Schweninger with passes that covered 23 and 21 yards and with a fourth down at the Miami one, Schweninger nudged across.

The long drive started after Colorado had stopped a 78-yard Miami thrust one foot short of its goal. The Hurricane march was a one-man production by fullback Jim Vollenweider, who carried on of 13 plays and gained 76 of the 78 yards. On the final play at the Colorado one, Nick Ryder was piled up short.

Southeastern Holds Third In AP Rating

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas A&I is the solid choice again as the top team in the Associated Press' weekly small college football poll.

But there may be trouble ahead for the all-winning Javelinas, who defeated East Texas State 22-6 last week for their third victory.

Hillsdale College of Michigan, which was second the week before, was tumbled 24-3 by Northern Michigan and dropped out of the first ten.

Humboldt state of California (3-0) jumped from fifth to second place by edging San Francisco State, 7-6.

Texas A&I received five first place nominations from The AP's board of eight regional members. Humboldt State got two and Southeastern Louisiana (3-0), the third place team, was given the other.

Unbeaten Delaware (3-0) joined the select list in the No. 8 position by walloping Lafayette 34-0. Earlier Delaware whipped Lehigh and Buffalo.

The small college top ten (points figured on a basis of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 from first through tenth places; first place votes in parentheses):

Fred Hutchinson Voted Manager Of Year In NL

NEW YORK (AP)—Cincinnati's Fred Hutchinson was a run-away selection as the National League's manager of the year for 1961—but he might not know about it yet.

Hutchinson was on a lesurely three or four day drive from Cincinnati to his home in Bradenton, Fla., when the results of The Associated Press poll was announced Friday and could not be contacted immediately.

The 42-year-old pilot received all but one of the 17 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The only dissenting ballot named Alvin Dark of the third place San Francisco Giants.

Hutchinson, with important contributions from new acquisitions pitcher Joey Jay and third baseman Gene Frese, and steady hitting from Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson, converted the Reds from a second division club to the National League champions.

United States Leads Britain In Ryder Cup

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

LYTHAM-ST. ANNES, England (AP)—The United States stormed to a 6-2 lead over Britain at the end of the foursomes in the Ryder Cup golf competition Friday and became 4-1 favorites to retain the golden trophy after Saturday's 16 singles.

Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper teamed brilliantly to win both their foursomes, including a 2 and 1 triumph over the highly rated British pair of Dai Rees and Ken Bousfield while Art Wall and Jay Hebert shared the golfing glory by doing the same.

A crowd of about 17,000 excited fans streamed and surged over the 6,635-yard Royal Lytham and St. Annes links. Par is 35-36—71 but it varies with the weather.

The Americans took a 3-1 lead at the end of the morning matches, which were played in warm sunshine with only a gentle breeze whispering over the course.

Two 12-foot putts before a huge, silent crowd at the 18th green in the evening sunlight helped the Americans to their big lead. Hebert sank one for a 1-up victory and Dow Finsterwald calmly rolled in another from the same distance in the last shot of the day.

Jerry Barber, U.S. captain, dropped himself from the morning matches then rested Doug Ford and Gene Littler, reigning U.S. Open champion, in the afternoon. Instead, Barber picked himself, partnered by Finsterwald, to replace Ford and Littler in the afternoon.

Barber and Finsterwald, playing in the very last match against Tom Halliburton and Neil Coles were 4 up after 11 holes and seemed to be coasting.

Then the British hit back, won three of the next six holes and took Barber and his partner to the 18th green.

Finsterwald sent a 12-foot putt into the cup for a 1-up victory.

Scores in the foursomes in which players take alternate strokes, were:

Morning rounds:

Christy O'Connor and Peter Alliss, Britain, defeated Ford and Littler, 4 and 3.

Wall and Hebert defeated John Panton and Bernard Hunt, Britain, 4 and 3.

Palmer and Casper defeated Rees and Bousfield, Britain, 2 and 1.

Bill Collins and Mike Souchak defeated Haliburton and Coles, Britain, 1 up.

Afternoon rounds:

Hebert and Wall defeated O'Connor and Alliss, 1 up.

Palmer and Casper defeated Panton and Hunt, 5 and 4.

Rees and Bousfield defeated Panton and Hunt, 5 and 4.

Rees and Bousfield defeated Collins and Souchak, United States, 4 and 2.

Barber and Finsterwald defeated Haliburton and Coles, 1 up.

Sixteen singles will be played Saturday — again over 18 holes—with eight decided in the morning and eight in the afternoon. Each match counts a point.

El Dorado Gets By Lions On Strong Defense, 14-0

EL DORADO, Ark. (Special)—The El Dorado Wildcats, scoring on a razzle-dazzle 60 yard pass and run play in the first quarter, then again on a 70-yard drive, which consumed 12 plays early in the fourth period, won a hard fought victory over the Ouachita Lions last night 14-0.

quarterback Gary Elia led a potent Wildcat offense which rakeed up 199 yards on the ground, while halfbacks Timmy Gordy and Butch Oglesbee provided most of the spark for the Lions. Gordy ground out 73 yards on 14 tries, and Oglesbee had 38 on 8 carries.

Late in the second quarter Elia intercepted a Lion pass on the Ouachita 47 and returned it to the 23. On the play a clipping penality was called against the Wildcats on Ouachita's 45 and the ball was moved back to El Dorado's 40 where they were given first and ten. Lightning struck fast then as the Wildcats covered the 60 yards to paydirt on one play.

Moody took a handoff from Elia and swung to the right, then he whirled and found Elia open on about the Ouachita 35, hit him with a pass and Elia out ran everybody from there for the score. Moody then kicked the extra point, and El Dorado led at the half 7-0.

Ouachita took the second half kickoff on the 13, returned to the 34, and from there mounted their most serious threat of the night. The sustained drive went all the way to the El Dorado one foot line, where the tough Wildcats held on downs. Gordy and Oglesbee ate up most of the yardage on the drive as they alternated carries.

After gaining a first and goal on the five yard-line, the Lions punched inside the Wildcat one in three plays but were stopped cold for no gain on fourth down and had to relinquish the ball.

El Dorado immediately quick kicked out to the 39 and Ouachita drove back down to the 30. On fourth down the Lions failed to pick up a first, and El Dorado took over.

From there the Wildcats started a 70-yard scoring drive which consumed 12 plays. Sophomore fullback Jim Thomas went the final five yards for the score with 10:21 seconds left to play in the game. Moody kicked the extra point to finish the scoring for the night.

Ouachita's other most serious drive came in the first period after El Dorado had failed to move the ball on the opening kickoff.

Taking over on their own 23 the Lions drove all the way to the Wildcats 10 yardline before losing the ball on downs. Oglesbee and Gordy were the big guns in this drive also as the Lions chalked up five first downs.

In the individual rushing department, aside from Gordy and Oglesbee, Bryant picked up eight yards on three carries, Traxler got six yards on two tries, and Warner lost 12 on nine carries.

Irish Tackle Rival USC In Comeback Bid

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Comeback-bent Notre Dame aims for its third victory of the football season Saturday against an ancient rival, Southern California.

A crowd of about 55,000 is expected as the two schools meet for the 33rd time since 1926. The Irish have won 21 times, lost nine and there have been two ties.

Notre Dame broke an eight-game losing streak, longest in the school's history, by defeating the Trojans in Los Angeles 17-0 in the final game of the 1960 campaign.

The Irish this year show signs of regaining national football prestige. They have defeated Oklahoma 19-6 and Purdue 22-20 to climb to the No. 8 spot in the AP poll.

USC was defeated by Georgia Tech 27-7, bounced back to edge Southern Methodist 21-16, and last week was shaded by top-ranked Iowa 35-34 when a two-point conversion attempt in the final minute failed. The tight squeeze dumped Iowa from No. 1 to No. 2 in this week's poll.

Junior fullback Mike Lind, who ripped 101 yards against Oklahome, is expected to be ready to supplement Notre Dame's attack. He sat out the Purdue game with an injury.

The passing of Bill Nelson and running of Willie Brown have featured the Trojan offense. Nelson has hit on 18 of 42 tosses for 372 yards and three touchdowns. Brown has scampered 282 yards in 36 trips for a 7.8 average.

Against MSU, Brown gained 183 yards in 13 carries, including a 93-yard sprint which set a USC varsity record.

The Trojans, playing away from home for the first time this season, have not won at Notre Dame since 1939.

Detroit Rises-Up To Dump Boston College By 20-3

By JERRY GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Jerry Gross fired up Detroit's Titans with two long touchdown passes totaling 100 yards Friday night and they remained unbeaten with a 20-3 victory over Boston College.

The 170-pound junior quarterback had a brilliant night, gaining 196 yards passing despite a soggy ball.

He connected on a 43-yard scoring pass to Larry Vargo after Detroit took the opening kickoff and on a 57-yarder to Steve Stonebreaker in the third quarter.

A beefy Eagle line that averaged 224-pounds a man was no match for the 5-foot-9 Titan missile thrower who entered the game fourth in the nation's individual offense statistics. The victory was Detroit's third straight and Gross has passed for 611 yards in the three games, adding 91 yards rushing.

A 19-yard Gross pass set up Detroit's third touchdown, a two-yard run by Bill Allen just before the third quarter ended.

Boston College, moving well on the ground until it got inside Detroit's 20, could score only on a 29-yard field goal by Lou Kirouac. The boot from the 19-yard line made it 7-3 early in the third quarter.

But Detroit struck right back, going 78 yards in six plays with the Gross to Stonebreaker pass covering the last 57 yards.

The Titans threatened to score twice more in the first half but were stopped at the 12 and five yard line.

Injuries May Slow NFL 11's This Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Injuries to key players will slow some teams Sunday when all 14 National Football League clubs square off with the Green Bay Packers visiting the Cleveland Browns in the day's top clash.

The Pittsburgh Steelers, winless after four starts, engage the Washington Redskins (also 0-4) at Pittsburgh and will have to play without quarterback Bobby Layne, who has an injured left side and may be out of action the remainder of the campaign.

The Los Angeles Rams (1-3) collide with the Lions at Detroit (2-2) and will be without middle linebacker Marlin McKeever, their weekend's 35-0 loss to the sizzling San Francisco 49ers. McKeever, like Layne, may be sidelined for the season.

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Colts (2-2) journey to Chicago to meet the Bears (2-2); the New York Giants (3-1) move into Dallas to face the Cowboys (3-1); the Philadelphia Eagles (3-1) invade St. Louis (2-2) to try to get even with the Cardinals for beating them 30-27 two weeks ago, and the 49ers (3-1), seeking their third straight shutout, tangle with the Vikings at Minnesota (1-3). Several of these teams have players benched because of injuries.

The Green Bay-Cleveland encounter brings together the third and fourth best defensive teams statistically. The Browns have yielded 887 yards rushing and passing in their four tests while the Packers have given up 1,043 yards. Cleveland is fourth in offense and Green Bay sixth.

The Browns' Milt Plum leads the NFL in passing, having completed 58 of 105 tosses. Green Bay's Bart Starr is fifth in passing with 51 completions in 90 pitches. The Packers have the No. 1 rusher in Jim Taylor, who has a fancy 6-yard average. Cleveland's Jim Brown is right behind Taylor although his average of 3.9 is below par for him. Brown and Taylor are both fullbacks. And the Packers have high scorer Paul Hornung, who has 64 points, 33 of which were scored in last weekend's 45-7 triumph over the Baltimore Colts.

Some 70,000 largest NFL crowd of the season, are expected to swarm Cleveland Stadium.

The San Francisco-Minnesota scrap must share some of the Sunday spotlight even through the 49ers are a 14-point favorite over the Vikings. The 49ers, top-ranked on offense and No. 2 on defense, will be out to hold the Vikings scoreless.

If they succeed, the 49ers will become the first NFL club in 27 years to score as many as three consecutive shutout victories. The 1934 Detroit Lions opened the season with a string of seven straight shutouts.

Blanda And Lee Lead Oilers To Tie With Boston

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—George Blanda kicked a dramatic 24 yard field goal five seconds before the final gun Friday night as the Houston Oilers tied Boston 31-31 in an American Football League game marked by the record passing performance of Jackie Lee.

Lee, who tossed for more than 400 yards in shattering the loop mark of 375, raced the clock after Boston grabbed a 31-28 edge on a Butch Songin to Gino Cappelletti pass just 50 seconds from the end.

Boston tried to give Houston the short pass and stop the long one but Lee's 25 yard pitch to Bill Gorman at the Boston 17 set up the tying Blanda kick.

Cappelletti, the AFL top scorer, made two consecutive spectacular catches covering the final 20 yards and it appeared the Patriots had won the game for Mike Holovak making his debut as head coach.

But Lee's great clutch trigger work enabled the defending AFL champions to snap a three game losing streak and give a lift to coach Lou Rymkus, who has been rumored on his way out.

Lee fired long scoring passes to Groman and Charlie Hennigan in the second period after Boston had taken an early lead.

Lee's 51 yard toss to Hennigan set up Charlie Tolar's three yard scoring dash in the third period. That wiped out the lead Boston manufactured when Larry Garron ran back the second half kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown.

Mickey Wright Heads Field In PGA Golf Play

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Defending champion Mickey Wright held the lead in the Ladies PGA Championship despite a 77 Friday to go with her best-of-career first round 67.

Winds of 25 to 35 miles an hour plauged the golfers.

"I was then over in over-all strokes for today's round, as compared with my fine round of yesterday," said Miss Wright, who lives in San Diego, Calif., "but I took 11 more putts—so I'm not blaming everything on the wind."

Shirley Englehorn of Spokane had a 74 Friday, the best round of the day, and crept up to be only two strokes behind Miss Wright at the halfway mark. She never has won a tournament.

Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham had a 76 and is in third place with 149.

George Bayer Ups His Lead In Golf Open

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Big George Bayer of Miami slipped to a one-over-par 71 Friday but increased his lead to two strokes at the halfway point in the $20,000 Ontario Open Golf Tournament.

Bayer, who set the course record with 64 Thursday, has a 36-hole total of 135.

Young Bobby Nichols of Midland, Tex., was second with 137. The former Texas A&M player also shot a 71 over the wind-lashed Whispering Lakes Golf course.

Tied for third at 138 were Billy Maxwell of Dallas and Dave Hill of Denver. Both shot 69s Friday. They and veteran Lloyd Mangrum of Apple Valley, Calif., were the only three players to break par 36-34—70.

Bayer started the round with a two-under par 34 on the front side despite three-putting the first hole. He overcame this error by making consecutive birdies on six, seven and eight.

But on the back nine Bayer, the longest hitter in golf, began spraying his shots. He frequently scrambled to get his par. On the 12th hole Bayer got in deep trouble when his second shot landed in the water hazard. With his penalty stroke he made a double bogey six on the hole.

Jon Gustin of Gladwyne, Pa., who was one shot back of Bayer after the first round, skidded to a 74 for a 143 total.

Tournament favorite Gray player of South Africa had a 72 for a 142 total. Player said he was bothered by the wind and was inaccurate with his iron shots.

Indians Battle Cowboys In GSC Game Tonight

Northeast State's young Indians attempt to ambush McNeese's trail-wise Cowboys Saturday night at Brown Stadium in a Gulf States Conference game that should put one club back in the running for the league crown.

The kickoff is scheduled for 8:00 p.m.

Both clubs will be bidding for their first GSC victory of the campaign after suffering losses in their initial conference action. The winner will still be very much alive in the GSC race since a perfect record in league play has been a rarity down through the years. McNeese fell before Louisiana Tech, 21-16, in its only GSC game while Northeast lost to Northwestern, 28-7, in its conference opener.

McNeese opened its season with a 24-6 trouncing of strong Pensacola Navy and last week lost to Arlington State, 22-19. Northeast blanked Mexico Poly, 28-0, lost to Lamar Tech, 28-34, and routed East Texas State, 36-0, before playing Northwestern.

Les DeVall's Cowboys will have the edge in weight up front and experience over Northeast. The McNeese line averages 217 pounds to Northeast's 213. McNeese has 11 seniors on its squad and Northeast only five. The Cowboys will have five of its seniors in the starting lineup and Northeast two.

McNeese is exepcted to rely on a strong passing game — if star quarterback Don Breaux' foot injury is not too serious. Breaux, who is expected to play although he may not start, ranks 23rd in NAIA passing statistics with 23 completions on 42 throws for 312 yards. McNeese is ranked 13th in team passing offense by the NAIA.

FRESHMAN AND Wendell Drost of Sulphur makes his first start of the season tonight when Northeast State entertains McNeese in the week's only Gulf States Conference contest. Drost will be joined at the Indian terminal posts by Tommy Latham, also making his first start of the campaign.

Breaux has been held out of McNeese contact work this week because of the injury. Nolan Viator, a senior who has completed six of 11 passes for 111 yards, is expected to start the game. He's a capable runner and has netted 37 yards in three games.

Several other Cowboys are reported hobbled by injuries but all are expected to see action. However, tackle Reuben Davis will miss the game. He was dropped from the squad this week for disciplinary reasons.

Top Cowboy running threats are fullback Jimmy Langley, the club's leading rusher with 71 yards, fullback Don Bossier and halfbacks Lloyd Guillot, Dale Barbeau and Charlie Stevenson.

Outstanding members of the McNeese defensive forward wall are all - GSC tackle Julius Fincke, guard Johnny Steed, second team all-GSC at end last fall, and end Tom Sestak.

Ronnie Myrick is expected to spearhead the Northeast offense which ranks 29th among NAIA schools in rushing offense with an average of 223.8 yards per game. Myrick has rolled up more yardage than any other player in the GSC this season, running for 171 yards and passing for 187.

Myrick, Don Wattigny and Mundy Breazeale will handle the duties at quarterback for Northeast.

Chief running threat for the Tribe this season has been sophomore fullback Willie Ragan, the club's leading rusher with 1[illegible] yards and its third top scorer with 15 points, all on points after touchdown. Myrick, top scorer on the team with 24 points, speedy Ken Newton, fullback Devone Payne, halfback Don Blackwelder, Wattigny and Al Ott, second in Indian scoring with 18 points are other standout Northeast ball carriers.

Top Indian linemen have been tackles Ross Nolan, Jim LaCoste and Richard Branch, guards Larry Rambin, Billy Foster and Terry Brunet and centers Bob Tatum and Tommy Beaube.

Performing at halftime will be the Indian band, which will present an extensive show arranged by senior music student Stanley Hodge. Tribe twirlers and the precision dance team will take part in the halftime activities, performing to a musical arrangement by Ray Carroll of the Northeast music department. Three 9 to 10 year olds, Terry Boyd, Debbie Peters and Debbie Craft will join the regular Indian twirlers in a twirling exhibition.

Claude Fuller of the Northeast speech department announces the Northeast halftime shows.

Harold Johnson To Defend Title Against Jones

NEW YORK (AP) — Harold Johnson, NBA light heavyweight champ, has agreed to defend his title against unbeaten Doug Jones of New York in Miami Beach Dec. 2, matchmaker Teddy Brenner said Friday.

Brenner said the fighters have agreed to terms and will sign for the match Monday.

He said Miami promoter Chris Dundee will come to New York this weekend to complete arrangements for the 15-round, nationally televised bout.

Johnson won the National Boxing Association version of the title Feb. 7 by stopping Jesse Bowdry for the vacant title. Johnson of Philadelphia has successfully defended twice, against Von Clay and Eddie Cotton.

Jones has 11 knockouts in his 20 professional fights. He owns victories over Bobo Olson, Pete Rademacher and Von Clay.

Archie Moore is still considered the world light heavyweight champ in New York, Massachusetts and Europe.

AGAINST ARLINGTON STATE

Tech Puts Record On Line In Texas

RUSTON (Special) — Louisiana Tech lays its unblemished record and high ranking among the nation's small colleges on the line Tonight at Arlington, Texas, in a contest with Arlington State.

The Rebels have won three in a row after taking a 30-7 shellacking from Mississippi Southern in the opener.

The Tech-Arlington tilt will start at 7:30 p.m.

This could turn out to be a battle between the Arlington ground forces and Tech's aerial-minded quarterbacks. McNeese State had a field day passing against the Rebs last week, but still lost the game 22-19.

Tech will face the Confederates without starting left halfback Jack Lestage, who was injured in the 12-0 win over the University of Southwestern last week. Lestage is expected to be back in action by State Fair Game time, Oct. 21.

Paul Labenne will move into Lestage's spot on the first eleven and Mickey Strother moves up to the second unit place. Other possibilities include Jack Odom and Kenny Tidwell.

If Tech and Northwestern State get by foes this weekend, they will both be undefeated before their clash at the State Fair in Shreveport next Saturday night. This should assure the largest crowd in the history of the long series between the ole rivals.

The Tech team left by bus at noon yesterday and stayed in Tyler, Tex., last night before moving on to Arlington today.

BATON ROUGE (Special) — A 37-man Louisiana State football teams aims for the Tigers' third straight win this afternoon in a South Carolina Homecoming. Kickoff time in Carolina Stadium is 1 p.m. CST.

South Carolina, a sturdy opponent especially in Carolina Stadium, holds a 10-7 win over Wake Forest, and has lost two close ones, to Duke, 7-6, and Georgia, [illegible]

"We will have to come up with another good effort," says LSU coach Paul Dietzel. "South Carolina is a much stronger team than they were last year. They have a tough line that will really hit."

Dietzel cited Gamecock tackle [illegible] Moss, an All - American candidate, and swift halfback Billy Gambrell as two "fine football players" in the Carolina lineup.

LSU will counter will fullback Earl Gros, a 215 - pound power runner, and halfbacks Wendell Harris and Jerry Stovall, and a rugged defensive line headed by All - America guard candidate Roy Winston (224), tackles Billy Booth (225) and Don Estes (225) and end Gene Sykes (185).

Jimmy Field will start at quarterback for the Tigers, with Lynn Amedee commanding LSU offensive specialists, the Go team.

ARKANSAS TRAVELERS

Girl Cagers Play Sterlington Men

STERLINGTON (Special) "They Are The Best" is a pet phrase sportswriters and fans everywhere employ in appraising Hazel Walker's sensational players, who've demonstrated their ability from coast-to-coast against many of the better men's team's in the nation —they play nothing but men's teams under men's rules and ask no favors at all.

They do, indeed, have to be the best to win a place on the Arkansas Travelers Roster, who meet the Sterlington Booster Club All-Stars here Oct. 16, at 8:00 p.m.

Miss Walker, the sole owner of the team, known as "Miss Basketball" was selected on the Mythical All-American AAU Team 11 years, a record which has never been topped. During 14 years in Amateur Ball, Hazel played on five National Championship Teams and runner-up three yeaas. She won the National Free Throw Title six years and International title two years. Her record of 49 out of 50 tries from the foul line has never been beaten in National Tournament History.

A few years back this All-American performer won a spot with Greats of Sports World in America's Athletic Hall of Fame — the Helm's Athtetic Foundation of Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Walker took her place with such stars as Babe Zaharias, Golf's Patty Berg and Marlene Bauer Hagge, Helen Wills, Pauline Betz and Louise Brough of Tennis Fame. She also joined the select company of these male stars: Jack Dempsey — Don Hutson — John L. Sullivan — Mel Ott; Charley Gehringer — Lou Gehrig — Cy Young — Paul Waner — Jo DiMaggio — Ben Hogan — All-American Jim Thorpe — Bob Mathias and many others.

In 1959 Arkansas had its first "Hall of Fame" and Hazel was selected to this coveted honor as one of its first five — the only female — among such greats as Bill Dickey — ex-New York Yankee catcher — and Bill Lee Howell, New York Giant Football coach — along with three others.

Rounding out the team are six players, whose ability and finesse in the gruelling sport of basketbasketball, is a constant source of amazement. They are the foremost performers of the day, making up an outstanding team that has ben acclaimed the best anywhere in the Nation — Best Dressed, Best Looking Team on the Road Anywhere. They travel in Special Built Station Wagon.

The girls hail from Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Ohio and many other states have been represented on the Travelers fine outfit. They include the one and only great, collossal, stupendous Frances "Goose" Garroutte from Van Buren, Arkansas — coach, manager and captain of the team — an 11 year veteran, the greatest professional player of all times, averages 40-45 points per game against the best of male opponents.

Goose plays pivot — excellent "Hook" shot from left or right and a sensational "unorthodox" one-handed push shot, few., if any, men stars can figure out.

She has been an All-American Selection of Professional Women's Teams 10 years and displays a fancy ball-handling exhibition during warm-up every night. The pre-game warm-up each night before starting time is worth the price of admission. Frances is 5'11", weighs 155 and is 28 years old.

Kemp Will Play

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Jack Kemp, star quarterback of the San Diego Chargers, probably will play in American Football League games the next two Sundays—and then will undergo an Army physical to determine whether he is exempt from active duty.

Kemp's Army reserve unit has been ordered to duty this Sunday.

He was declared physically disqualified for active service because of a shoulder injury at an earlier examination.

The Army said it will consider his request for a deferment after it receives the results of the examination Oct. 23.

A teammate, tackle Ron Mix, was declared physically qualified for active duty with the reserve unit and turned down in his request for a deferment.

The schedule of Solunar Periods, printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

This marks LSU's third inter - sectional trial of the season, following a 16-3 loss to Rice, a 16-7 win over Texas A&M, and the Tigers' 10-0 decision over Georgia Tech in Southeastern Conference play.

South Carolina, a sturdy opponent especially in Carolina Stadium, holds a 10-7 win over Wake Forest, and has lost two close ones, to Duke, 7-6, and Georgia, 17-14.

"We will have to come up with another good effort," says LSU coach Paul Dietzel. "South Carolina is a much stronger team than they were last year. They have a tough line that will really hit."

Dietzel cited Gamecock tackle Jim Moss, an All - American candidate, and swift halfback Billy Gambrell as two "fine football players" in the Carolina lineup.

LSU will counter will fullback Earl Gros, a 215 - pound power runner, and halfbacks Wendell Harris and Jerry Stovall, and a rugged defensive line headed by All - America guard candidate Roy Winston (224), tackles Billy Booth (225) and Don Estes (225) and end Gene Sykes (185).

Jimmy Field will start at quarterback for the Tigers, with Lynn Amedee commanding LSU' offensive specialists, the Go team.

The LSU team will leave Baton Rouge Friday by chartered air coach at 11 a.m. (CST), and arrive in Columbia, S. C. at 3:36 p.m. (EST). Coach Dietzel plans a brief workout in Carolina Stadium Friday afternoon.

The traveling squad:

Centers - Dennis Gaubatz, Gary Kinchen, Ronald Pere.

Right Guards - Monk Guillot, Eddie Habert, Sammy Odom, Robbie Hucklebridge.

Fullbacks - Earl Gros, Charles Cranford, Buddy Hamic, Steve Ward.

Bob Richards, an outstanding performer in LSU's 10-0 win over Georgia Tech last week, will captain the Tigers against South Carolina in Columbia, S. C., Saturday.

Richards, a 6-2, 217 - pound senior from Oak Ridge, Tenn., plays defensive end for LSU's celebrated defensive platoon, the Chinese Bandits. Offensively, Richards plays left tackle, where he was a starter last season. His excellence on defense prompted the LSU coaching staff to shift Richards to full time duty with the Bandits this fall.

ARKANSAS TRAVELERS

Girl Cagers Play Sterlington Men

STERLINGTON (Special) "They Are The Best" is a pet phrase sportswriters and fans everywhere employ in appraising Hazel Walker's sensational players, who've demonstrated their ability from coast-to-coast against many of the better men's team's in the nation —they play nothing but men's teams under men's rules and ask no favors at all.

They do, indeed, have to be the best to win a place on the Arkansas Travelers Roster, who meet the Sterlington Booster Club All-Stars here Oct. 16, at 8:00 p.m.

Miss Walker, the sole owner of the team, known as "Miss Basketball" was selected on the Mythical All-American AAU Team 11 years, a record which has never been topped. During 14 years in Amateur Ball, Hazel played on five National Championship Teams and runner-up three yeaas. She won the National Free Throw Title six years and International Title two years. Her record of 49 out of 50 tries from the foul line has never been beaten in National Tournament History.

A few years back this All-American performer won a spot with greats of Sports World in America's Athletic Hall of Fame — the Helm's Athtetic Foundation of Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Walker took her place with such stars as Babe Zaharias, Golf's Patty Berg and Marlene Bauer Hagge, Helen Wills, Pauline Betz and Louise Brough of Tennis Fame. She also joined the select company of these male stars: Jack Dempsey — Don Hutson — John L. Sullivan — Mel Ott; Charley Gehringer — Lou Gehrig — Cy Young — Paul Waner — Jo Dimaggio — Ben Hogan — All-American Jim Thorpe — Bob Mathias and many others.

In 1959 Arkansas had its first "Hall of Fame" and Hazel was selected to this coveted honor as one of its first five — the only female — among such greats as Bill Dickey — ex-New York Yankee catcher — and Bill Lee Howell, New York Giant Football coach — along with three others.

Rounding out the team are six players, whose ability and finesse in the gruelling sport of basket-basketball, is a constant source of amazement. They are the foremost performers of the day, making up an outstanding team that has ben acclaimed the best anywhere in the Nation — Best Dressed, Best Looking Team on the Road Anywhere. They travel in Special Built Station Wagon.

The girls hail from Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Ohio and many other states have been represented on the Travelers fine outfit. They include the one and only great, collossal, stupendous Frances "Goose" Garroutte from Van Buren, Arkansas — coach, manager and captain of the team — an 11 year veteran, the greatest professional player of all times, averages 40-45 points per game against the best of male opponents.

Goose plays pivot — excellent "Hook" shot from left or right and a sensational "unorthodox" one-handed push shot, few,, if any, men stars can figure out.

She has been an All-American Selection of Professional Women's Teams 10 years and displays a fancy ball-handling exhibition during warm-up every night. The pre-game warm-up each night before starting time is worth the price of admission. Frances is 5'11", weighs 155 and is 28 years old.

Kemp Will Play

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Jack Kemp, star quarterback of the San Diego Chargers, probably will play in American Football League games the next two Sundays—and then will undergo an Army physical to determine whether he is exempt from active duty.

Kemp's Army reserve unit has been ordered to duty this Sunday.

He was declared physically disqualified for active service because of a shoulder injury at an earlier examination.

The Army said it will consider his request for a deferment after it receives the results of the examination Oct. 23.

A teammate, tackle Ron Mix, was declared physically qualified for active duty with the reserve unit and turned down in his request for a deferment.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The Bayou DeSiard Country Club was the setting last evening at 7:00 o'clock for the rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gibson McDonald.

For the occasion the reception rooms of the club were filled with a profusion of white flowers and foliage. On the table in the entrance hall an arrangement of gardenias and white berries in a footed silver bowl was surrounded by green votive lights.

The guests gathered on the porch where large magnolia boughs graced the corners and hurricane lamps, surrounded by greenery, were placed on tables. In the lounge several large magnolia boughs and swags of English Ivy were used at vantage points.

Miss Theus wore for this party a blue and green silk model with a full skirt, and chose this occasion, along with Mr. McDonald, to present gifts to the wedding attendants.

The fall theme was carried out in floral arrangements placed throughout the reception rooms. The tea table was overlaid with a linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of giant marigolds with candles in crystal candelabra used on either side of the centerpiece. Mrs. T. W. Stodghill Jr., served punch from the crystal punch service placed at one end of the table.

The gifts were placed on tables in the reception rooms, and the hostesses gift was a set of Revere cooking ware. Friends and relatives called between the appointed hours of 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. W. C. Martin and Mrs. William A. Butler Jr. and the party was held in the home of Mrs. Martin, between the hours of 10:00 and 12:00 o'clock.

Guests assembled in the kitchen-den of the spacious home. Fall colors were noted in the decorations, and flowers and fruit were used in the decorative arrangements placed on the desk and hutch.

The table was overlaid with a cocoa brown linen cloth with darker napkins, and centered with a compote of yellow giant marigolds and yellow and green wax leaf greenery. The silver coffee service and crystal punch service were placed at opposite ends of the serving table. Mrs. Martin served the coffee and Mrs. Butler served the punch.

Two games provided entertainment during the party hours. Mrs. McCain won prizes as winner and she presented her gifts to her daughter.

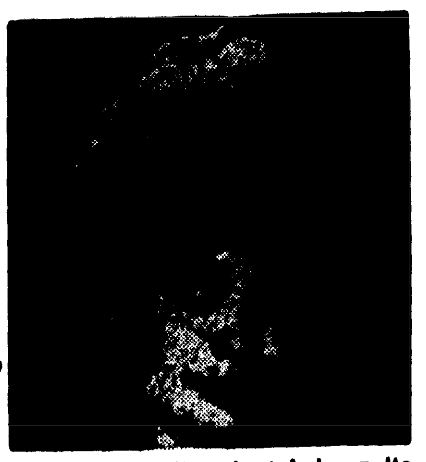
FABULOUS HAIRDOS – A PREVIEW OF '62

A collection of 27 New Hairdos created by seven famous hair stylists complete with setting, combing points, and a primer on hair care is featured in Good Housekeeping. Here are four of the lovely creations that may be just for you!

THE SIDE-LINE. An all-around pouf of mid-length hair by day, the side-line parts company by night: one strand is shaped into a stand-up curl, another waves over one eyebrow.

VERY YOUNG WIFE—prettily at-home wherever she goes. Hair is parted on both sides, forming a panel that's brushed to buoyant heights. The side and back hair turns under slightly.

FUN TO GO AROUND WITH is this happy crown. Side hair combed up and around unites with hair brushed up in back to form a pert, curl-enclosing halo.



LOW BROW: For short hair on its way up. Give it the brush, hold the peaks high with hair-spray. Side hair is marvelously mobile, the better to suit the shape of your face.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 17, have been married 14 months and have a small baby. My husband is 19 and he doesn't act anything like he did when we were dating. I can't believe he's the same guy.

He's so jealous of me I feel like a prisoner. When he's home he insists on answering the telephone. If it's a wrong number he accuses me of having a boy friend.

Last night he went through my picture album and tore up every picture he could find of me with someone else. Some were group pictures of kids I went to school with.

After that display of rotten temper I decided I wasn't going to take any more of his hatefulness. I phoned my father and asked him to come for me and the baby. I want to get a divorce and start over. What is your advice? DELTA GIRL

Dear Girl: Start what over—another hideous mess?

Here you are at 17, married to a hot-tempered adolescent, the mother of a child, and already eyeing the divorce court as the big magic which will solve all our problems. It won't. It would only free you to make another horrible mistake.

You need time to grow up and so does that active volcano who calls himself a husband. My advice is to stay apart for a few weeks then see a marriage counselor or a clergyman together for advice on how to make a success of your marriage.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I run a small store. We've been in business almost 10 years and have done well. We are open four evenings a week and the hours are wearing, but we have an excellent inventory, a healthy bank account and a wonderful trade. The trouble is we are both dead tired because we've never had a vacation.

Whenever I mention taking a few days off Arnie says he isn't going to leave the store with strangers. He is afraid we would lose some of our trade to the competitor down the street if we shut our doors.

Please dish out some of your common sense. I'm —HOARSE FROM TALKING

Dear Hoarse: Ask your husband if he ever saw a Brink's money wagon in a funeral procession.

Insist that he close the store for 10 days and take a vacation. What good is success if it makes a prisoner of you? If Arnie refuses tell him you're going alone and that you'll send him post cards. Then do it.

Dear Ann Landers: Our sister has always been a strong individualist. She has ridiculed conventionality all of her life and has brought up her daughters the same way.

Please understand that we are not sitting in judgment. All we want is advice on a pressing problem. This sister's oldest daughter (now 18) is pregnant with her second out-of-wedlock child in two years. There is no father in sight. The mother has invited us to a baby shower next week. She said "Lydia is in her sixth month and she needs clothing for the baby."

Our husbands say a baby shower under these conditions is a mockery and we should not go. What do you say? —SISTERS

Dear Sisters: A baby shower is designed to honor a girl who is anticipating a happy event. In this case I see nothing to celebrate nor anyone to be honored. Send a gift of clothing for the baby but stay home.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for "Ann Landers'" booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wedding Brunch Honors Couple After Ceremony

Following the wedding ceremony in St. Matthew's Catholic Church this morning at noon Mr. and Mrs. Joe David Cascio will honor their son and his new bride, Mr. and Mrs. Victor David Cascio, with a buffet brunch at the Paragon Club at 1:00 p.m.

An arrangement of white gardenias flanked by silver candelabras holding white tapers will grace the table where the honored guests and immediate family will sit. Small bouquets of white rosebuds will center tables where other guests will be seated.

Approximately 200 guests, including the wedding party and out-of-town guests, are expected to attend.

TIGHTS

The big news in tights is color—with gold, grape, and even pastel tones heading the luscious list. This makes laundering more important than ever.

Your Baby And Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

"Dear Mrs. Eldred

"Please help me with this problem. My baby, one year old, is unable to eat anything which contains wheat. Her body cannot tolerate it, because of this she does not gain as she should.

"She eats table food and I am finding it extremely hard to give her enough food with both variety and sufficient vitamins to make her gain weight. Will you outline a diet for me?" —Mrs. F. C.

ANSWER

She is allergic to wheat. In such case it seems to me there should be symptoms other than just the inability to gain. If she cannot have wheat, she can have rye, oats, barley and rice, as well as ripe bananas, to take the place of wheat. She can have rice or potato bread, or cakes or cookies instead of those made with wheat flour. She can have rye wafers instead of white crackers.

If this is the "only" allergy she has, you are lucky as she can have so many other foods that it should not be difficult to feed her with plenty of nourishing foods.

She can have all the vegetables and fruits, all the meats, poultry and fish. You do have to be careful if you give her any luncheon meats, or combination of meat. These meats must not contain wheat flour. Read the labels before you buy.

Breakfast—cereals made from the grains mentioned above; fruit juice; an egg, preferably hard-cooked; rye wafers.

PROPER VITAMINS

Mid-morning see that she has proper vitamin products to supply A and D and the B complex vitamins.

Lunch can be cottage cheese, gelatine with fruit or vegetable, or the vegetables alone; some pudding made with egg and milk and thickened with cornstarch; tapioca or rice, rye wafers if she wants them.

Dinner can be the table food you eat: meat, potatoes; vegetables, rye wafers and some cooked fruit. Serve her milk at each of the three meals.

Try your nearest library for books on allergic diets, or write Mildred S. Hatch, 8 Pine Street, St. Johnsbury, Vermont, U.S.A., who has a fine loan library from which you can get books on the nutrition of allergic children.

If you would like the leaflet "Eczema and Diets for Allergic Children," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 36 to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Rayville Scene Of Music Guild Luncheon Meet

The Music Guild met in Rayville on October 11, in the new home of Mrs. Rabun Wroten, with Mrs. Marvin Smith and Mrs. Marvin Shipp serving as co-hostesses. Guests attending were Mrs. J. L. Harrell, Mrs. Florence Shea and Mrs. R. H. Jones.

One previous member was reinstated, Mrs. R. T. Watson, and new members voted into the Guild were Mrs. Nollie Hickman, Mrs. Richard Yancey, Mrs. Harold Shepherd, Mrs. Ellis Bairnsfarther and Mrs. Allen Coon.

Selected as chairman for the annual Music Guild Awards was Mrs. T. Earl Ogg, with the following co-chairman: Mrs. J. Norman Coon for Ouachita High School, Mrs. L. C. Nolan, Jr. for Neville High School and Mrs. Donald Logan for West Monroe High School.

Mrs. C. J. Dilingham was appointed Hospitality Chairman for the Guild.

The program, focusing on the American composers Samuel Barber and Howard Hasnon, was presented by Mrs. Tom Spurlock. President, Mrs. R. W. Cretney introduced the authors by reading the text, followed by a piano selection by Mrs. Donald Logan and a vocal solo, "The Daisies" by Mrs. Rabum Wroten. Mrs. Robert Davis played Howard Hanson's "Clog Dance" and the program was climaxed by Barber's "A Nun Takes the Veil," sung by Mrs. J. Norman Coon.

After the business meeting and the program Mrs. Wroten served luncheon to the 25 members attending.

U.S. Is Urged To End Racial Discrimination

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Rights Commission has called for a full scale attack by the federal government on racial discrimination that keeps the Negro trapped in unskilled, low paying jobs.

It urged the government, by use of its federal authority and in its role as the nation's largest employer, to help Negroes break away from the "vicious circle of discrimination in employment opportunities."

Lack of opportunity over a long period, the commission said, eventually destroys the desire of many Negroes to improve their educational and occupational status.

In a report Friday on employment, the commission said the Negro is denied, or fails to apply for, training for jobs which have traditionally been denied him; when jobs do become available, there are consequently few, if any, qualified Negroes available to fill them; and often, because of lack of knowledge of such newly opened opportunities, even the few who are qualified fail to apply.

The commission said the pattern of job discrimination is nationwide, not merely centered in the South.

RESCUE 11 ON BARGE

FABULOUS HAIRDOS – A PREVIEW OF '62

A collection of 27 New Hairdos created by seven famous hair stylists complete with setting, combing points, and a primer on hair care is featured in Good Housekeeping. Here are four of the lovely creations that may be just for you!

THE SIDE-LINE. An all-around pouf of mid-length hair by day, the side-line parts company by night: one strand is shaped into a stand-up curl, another waves over one eyebrow.

VERY YOUNG WIFE—prettily at-home wherever she goes. Hair is parted on both sides, forming a panel that's brushed to buoyant heights. The side and back hair turns under slightly.

FUN TO GO AROUND WITH is this happy crown. Side hair combed up and around unites with hair brushed up in back to form a pert, curl-enclosing halo.

LOW BROW: For short hair on its way up. Give it the brush, hold the peaks high with hair-spray. Side hair is marvelously mobile, the better to suit the shape of your face.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 17, have been married 14 months and have a small baby. My husband is 19 and he doesn't act anything like he did when we were dating. I can't believe he's the same guy.

He's so jealous of me I feel like a prisoner. When he's home he insists on answering the telephone. If it's a wrong number he accuses me of having a boy friend.

Last night he went through my picture album and tore up every picture he could find of me with someone else. Some were group pictures of kids I went to school with.

After that display of rotten temper I decided I wasn't going to take any more of his hatefulness. I phoned my father and asked him to come for me and the baby. I want to get a divorce and start over. What is your advice? —DELTA GIRL

Dear Girl: Start what over—another hideous mess?

Here you are at 17, married to a hot-tempered adolescent, the mother of a child, and already eyeing the divorce court as the big magic which will solve all your problems. It won't. It would only free you to make another horrible mistake.

You need time to grow up and so does that active volcano who calls himself a husband. My advice is to stay apart for a few weeks then see a marriage counselor or a clergyman together for advice on how to make a success of your marriage.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I run a small store. We've been in business almost 10 years and have done well. We are open four evenings a week and the hours are wearing, but we have an excellent inventory, a healthy bank account and a wonderful trade. The trouble is we are both dead tired because we've never had a vacation.

Whenever I mention taking a few days off Arnie says he isn't going to leave the store with strangers. He is afraid we would lose some of our trade to the competitor down the street if we shut our doors.

Please dish out some of your common sense. I'm —HOARSE FROM TALKING

Dear Hoarse: Ask your husband if he ever saw a Brink's money wagon in a funeral procession.

Insist that he close the store for 10 days and take a vacation. What good is success if it makes a prisoner of you? If Arnie refuses tell him you're going alone and that you'll send him post-cards. Then do it.

Dear Ann Landers: Our sister has always been a strong individualist. She has ridiculed conventionality all of her life and has brought up her daughters the same way.

Please understand that we are not sitting in judgment. All we want is advice on a pressing problem. This sister's oldest daughter (now 18) is pregnant with her second out-of-wedlock child in two years. There is no father in sight. The mother has invited us to a baby shower next week. She said "Lydia is in her sixth month and she needs clothing for the baby."

Our husbands say a baby shower under these conditions is a mockery and we should not go. What do you say? —SISTERS

Dear Sisters: A baby shower is designed to honor a girl who is anticipating a happy event. In this case I see nothing to celebrate nor anyone to be honored. Send a gift of clothing for the baby but stay home.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for "Ann Landers'" booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Your Baby And Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

"Dear Mrs. Eldred:

"Please help me with this problem. My baby, one year old, is unable to eat anything which contains wheat. Her body cannot tolerate it; because of this she does not gain as she should.

"She eats table food and I am finding it extremely hard to give her enough food with both variety and sufficient vitamins to make her gain weight. Will you outline a diet for me?" —Mrs. F.C.

ANSWER

She is allergic to wheat. In such case it seems to me there should be symptoms other than just the inability to gain. If she cannot have wheat, she can have rye, oats, barley and rice, as well as ripe bananas, to take the place of wheat. She can have rice or potato bread, or cakes or cookies instead of those made with wheat flour. She can have rye wafers instead of white crackers.

If this is the "only" allergy she has, you are lucky as she can have so many other foods that it should not be difficult to feed her with plenty of nourishing foods.

She can have all the vegetables and fruits, all the meats, poultry and fish. You do have to be careful if you give her any luncheon meats, or combination of meat. These meats must not contain wheat flour. Read the labels before you buy.

Be sure she doesn't get any gravy thickened with white flour, or any bakery goods made with white flour.

The following will give you some suggestions.

Breakfast—cereals made from the grains mentioned above; fruit juice; an egg, preferably hard-cooked; rye wafers.

PROPER VITAMINS

Mid-morning see that she has proper vitamin products to supply A and D and the B complex vitamins.

Lunch can be cottage cheese; gelatine with fruit or vegetable, or the vegetables alone; some pudding made with egg and milk and thickened with cornstarch; tapioca or rice; rye wafers if she wants them.

Dinner can be the table food you eat; meat; potatoes; vegetables; rye wafers and some cooked fruit. Serve her milk at each of the three meals.

Try your nearest library for books on allergic diets, or write Mildred S. Hatch, 8 Pine Street, St. Johnsbury, Vermont, U.S.A., who has a fine loan library from which you can get books on the nutrition of allergic children.

If you would like the leaflet "Eczema and Diets for Allergic Children," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 36 to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Rayville Scene Of Music Guild Luncheon Meet

The Music Guild met in Rayville on October 11, in the new home of Mrs. Rabun Wroten, with Mrs. Marvin Smith and Mrs. Marvin Shipp serving as co-hostesses. Guests attending were Mrs. J. L. Harrell, Mrs. Florence Shea and Mrs. R. H. Jones.

One previous member was reinstated, Mrs. R. T. Watson, and new members voted into the Guild were Mrs. Nollie Hickman, Mrs. Richard Yancy, Mrs. Harold Shepherd, Mrs. Ellis Bairnsfarther and Mrs. Allen Coon.

Selected as chairman for the annual Music Guild Awards was Mrs. T. Earl Ogg, with the following co-chairman: Mrs. J. Norman Coon for Ouachita High School, Mrs. L. C. Nolan, Jr. for Neville High School and Mrs. Donald Logan for West Monroe High School.

Mrs. C. L. Dillingham was appointed Hospitality Chairman for the Guild.

The program, focusing on the American composers Samuel Barber and Howard Hasnon, was presented by Mrs. Tom Spurlock, President. Mrs. R. W. Cretney introduced the authors by reading the text, followed by a piano selection by Mrs. Donald Logan and a vocal solo, "The Daisies" by Mrs. Rabum Wroten. Mrs. Robert Davis played Howard Hanson's "Clog Dance" and the program was climaxed by Barber's "A Nun Takes the Veil," sung by Mrs. J. Norman Coon.

After the business meeting and the program Mrs. Wroten served luncheon to the 25 members attending.

U.S. Is Urged To End Racial Discrimination

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Rights Commission has called for a full scale attack by the federal government on racial discrimination that keeps the Negro trapped in unskilled, low paying jobs.

It urged the government, by use of its federal authority and in its role as the nation's largest employer, to help Negroes break away from the "vicious circle of discrimination in employment opportunities."

Lack of opportunity over a long period, the commission said, eventually destroys the desire of many Negroes to improve their educational and occupational status.

In a report Friday on employment, the commission said the Negro is denied, or fails to apply for, training for jobs which have traditionally been denied him; when jobs do become available, there are consequently few, if any, qualified Negroes available to fill them; and often, because of lack of knowledge of such newly opened opportunities, even the few who are qualified fail to apply.

The commission said the pattern of job discrimination is nationwide, not merely centered in the South.

RESCUE 11 ON BARGE

Orleans Election Sparks Interest

By SAM HANNA
World Staff Writer

Louisiana politicians are keeping a close watch on New Orleans where a struggle for control is being waged. What happens in New Orleans bears watching from the state level.

The major fight is between Mayor Victor Schiro and the man who put him where he is, former-Mayor deLesseps S. Morrison, now a member of the Kennedy administration in Washington.

Schiro, who succeeded Morrison last July at Morrison's insistance, is running for election in the January 27 first primary, but not with Morrison's support nor the backing of the Crescent City Democratic Association.

In New Orleans, where politics is played for keeps, the arena is divided between the CCDA (Crescent City Democratic Association) and the Regular Democratic Organization (Old Regulars).

At the moment the CCDA is without a candidate, although the race is just a few months away.

When Morrison left to become Ambassador to the Organization of American States, he pushed a City Council move to name Schiro as his successor.

But as politics would have it, Morrison and Schiro have since parted company. The result is a split in the CCDA and a good chance of the Old Regulars getting a man back in City Hall after a 16-years absence.

That man is James A. Comiskey, a member of the City Council and son of Assessor James E. Comiskey. He's running for mayor with the support of the Old Regulars.

But the interesting part of Comiskey's candidacy is that, with Schiro and Morrison apart, Comiskey also has the straggling support of some members of the CCDA.

Even Morrison is reported to be leaning toward Comiskey, although he has denied this. Informed sources in New Orleans say some members of the CCDA may break away and support Comiskey.

However, the latest development is the possible candidacy of one of the brightest young men in the Louisiana Legislature, Sen. Adrain Duplantier, a New Orleans attorney.

Duplantier is considered in the race — with the support of the CCDA. Should Duplantier enter, Morrison is expected to rally behind him and of course bring the CCDA in line behind a single candidate.

Observers believe Duplantier's candidacy would be the best bet for whipping the CCDA into step.

At the moment, there are other candidates who don't figure in the picture with the CCDA or the Old Regulars. Namely, they are Richard Burke, a member of the City Council, and Joseph Bossetta, an assistant district attorney and former legislator.

Both men have announced and both men are campaigning. Brig. Gen. Raymond Huff, who headed up the National Guard in Louisiana under the late Gov. Earl K. Long, has been mentioned as a candidate with the support of New Orleans segregationist.

And Rep. Edward J. Lebreton, the New Orleans floor whip for Morrison, is a talked - about candidate, but he has neither taken himself out of the race nor put himself in.

The key to the race, however, is the role that Morrison assumes. Although he is working in Washington, Morrison spends as many weekends as possible in New Orleans, which gives him a chance to stay on top of the situation.

Nobody seems to know what caused the break between Morrison and Schiro, although one thing that didn't help their relationship was a fight over the chairmanship of the CCDA caucus chairmanship.

Despite Morrison's opposition, Schiro, upon taking office, was successful in getting the CCDA to elect City Atty. Alden W. Muller as caucus chairman.

This was a move designed to give Schiro complete control of the CCDA, a move that defied Morrison, who was responsible for Schiro being picked by the City Council to succeed him.

Twice since this feud, the CCDA, with Morrison bucking Schiro has voted against endorsing Schiro. The vote, on October 1, was 8½ to 6½.

Then, on Wednesday of this week, the CCDA caucus voted deadlocked 7½ to 7½ in Schiro's move for the organization's endorsement.

Unless Duplantier enters the race with Morrison's support, the CCDA could very well become a splinter organization — split behind Schiro and Comiskey.

If that should happen, Morrison may end up in line with Comiskey and the Old Regulars, the organization that he threw out of office 16 years ago and kept out of office for 16 years.

To describe this situation, Morrison's own words are fitting — "a political jambalaya," which he said was created during the past governor's race when Earl Long came out for Gov. Jimmie Davis, along with the Old Regulars, the Times - Picayune and the Ewing newspapers.

SIXTH ANNUAL

Columbia's Art Festival Today

COLUMBIA (Special) — Today is the day for art lovers in this area, as the sixth annual Caldwell Parish Art Festival gets underway at 9:30 a.m.

Festival co - chairman Mrs. Katherine Arnold said that the festival is unusual in that "it originates in a parish whose population is less than 10,000 and whose parish seat, Columbia, is less than 2,000.

Last year there were 3,000 guests and participants. Another unusual feature, she said, is that it has a day - long program featuring current interest, book, music, drama and the arts.

Theme this year is the Civil War Centennial.

"The whole community plays a part and after five years of experience, staging, refreshments, the style show, sound arrangements, registration, publications and the band concert progress smoothly without the assistance of the chairman," festival officials said.

With ribbon for prizes and no hanging fees, each artist has a one - man show.

Civil War battles, Louisiana heritage from Ante Bellum days, and Cajun dialect will be interspersed with music and art, old and new. An exhibit of centennial herilooms will be an attraction.

Park Bandstand To Be Donated Here On Sunday

The Monroe Jaycees will donate a bandstand, which they built in Frosythe Park, to the city in ceremonies to be held Sunday.

Jack Murphy will present the bandstand to Mayor W. L. Howard, who will accept in the name of the citizens of the community and the Neville Concert Band, under the direction of Herbert Cathwright, will prsent an hour long program, beginning at 2 p.m.

To help pay for the remaining construction cost a small section of reserved seats, at 50 cents a seat, will be set aside.

Murphy, chairman of the July 4, Jaycee project, noted the need for a stand large enough to hold any of the local bands to give a concert. His idea to build the bandstand was endorsed and supported by the 12 man board of directors of the Monroe Jaycees and the membership at large.

Wells and Parker drew the plans and local merchants who were interested in the project donated some materials and funds. The city council gave final approval of the bandstand's construction.

Services were volunteered by a local carpenter, R. E. Poole, who supervised the work which was done by the Jaycees and their friends during their spare time over the past one and a half months.

The bandstand measures 45 feet by 15 feet and is large enough to accommodate an 80 piece concert band.

House Tour Is Scheduled

RUSTON (Special) — The Ruston Quota Club will sponsor an open door house tour Sunday, Dec. 17 as part of the Yuletide season.

Six of Ruston's new homes will be on exhibit to the public through the event, pushed as a fund - raising project for the club, whose proceeds will go to philanthropic uses, aiding hard - of - hearing children of the parish.

Mrs. Elaine Taylor, president, said Mrs. Eugenia Dawson, immediate past president, will be chairman for the event. Mrs. Edyth Bice heads the committee on house selection, and her co-workers are Mrs. Sallie Beasley and Mrs. Lois Peden.

AROUND LOUISIANA

Orleans Election Sparks Interest

By SAM HANNA
World Staff Writer

Louisiana politicians are keeping a close watch on New Orleans where a struggle for control is being waged. What happens in New Orleans bears watching from the state level.

The major fight is between Mayor Victor Schiro and the man who put him where he is, former-Mayor deLesseps S. Morrison, now a member of the Kennedy administration in Washington.

Schiro, who succeeded Morrison last July at Morrison's insistance, is running for election in the January 27 first primary, but not with Morrison's support nor the backing of the Crescent City Democratic Association.

In New Orleans, where politics is played for keeps, the arena is divided between the CCDA (Crescent City Democratic Association) and the Regular Democratic Organization (Old Regulars).

At the moment the CCDA is without a candidate, although the race is just a few months away.

When Morrison left to become Ambassador to the Organization of American States, he pushed a City Council move to name Schiro as his successor.

But as politics would have it, Morrison and Schiro have since parted company. The result is a split in the CCDA and a good chance of the Old Regulars getting a man back in City Hall after a 16-years absence.

That man is James A. Comiskey, a member of the City Council and son of Assessor James E. Comiskey. He's running for mayor with the support of the Old Regulars.

But the interesting part of Comiskey's candidacy is that, with Schiro and Morrison apart, Comiskey also has the straggling support of some members of the CCDA.

Even Morrison is reported to be leaning toward Comiskey, although he has denied this. Informed sources in New Orleans say some members of the CCDA may break away and support Comiskey.

However, the latest development is the possible candidacy of one of the brightest young men in the Louisiana Legislature, Sen. Adrain Duplantier, a New Orleans attorney.

Duplantier is considered in the race — with the support of the CCDA. Should Duplantier enter, Morrison is expected to rally behind him and of course bring the CCDA in line behind a single candidate.

Observers believe Duplantier's candidacy would be the best bet for whipping the CCDA into step.

At the moment, there are other candidates who don't figure in the picture with the CCDA or the Old Regulars. Namely, they are Richard Burke, a member of the City Council, and Joseph Bossetta, an assistant district attorney and former legislator.

Both men have announced and both men are campaigning. Brig. Gen. Raymond Huff, who headed up the National Guard in Louisiana under the late Gov. Earl K. Long, has been mentioned as a candidate with the support of New Orleans segregationist.

And Rep. Edward J. Lebreton, the New Orleans floor whip for Morrison, is a talked - about candidate, but he has neither taken himself out of the race nor put himself in.

The key to the race, however, is the role that Morrison assumes. Although he is working in Washington, Morrison spends as many weekends as possible in New Orleans, which gives him a chance to stay on top of the situation.

Nobody seems to know what caused the break between Morrison and Schiro, although one thing that didn't help their relationship was a fight over the chairmanship of the CCDA caucus chairmanship.

Despite Morrison's opposition, Schiro, upon taking office, was successful in getting the CCDA to elect City Atty. Alden W. Muller as caucus chairman.

This was a move designed to give Schiro complete control of the CCDA, a move that defied Morrison, who was responsible for Schiro being picked by the City Council to succeed him.

Twice since this feud, the CCDA, with Morrison bucking Schiro has voted against endorsing Schiro. The vote, on October 1, was 8½ to 6½.

Then, on Wednesday of this week, the CCDA caucus voted deadlocked 7½ to 7½ in Schiro's move for the organization's endorsement.

Unless Duplantier enters the race with Morrison's support, the CCDA could very well become a splinter organization — split behind Schiro and Comiskey.

If that should happen, Morrison may end up in line with Comiskey and the Old Regulars, the organization that he threw out of office 16 years ago and kept out of office for 16 years.

To describe this situation, Morrison's own words are fitting — "a political jambalaya," which he said was created during the past governor's race when Earl Long came out for Gov. Jimmie Davis, along with the Old Regulars, the Times - Picayune and the Ewing newspapers.

Selman Halts Operations For ADC Exercises

Selman Field, along with all other commercial fields throughout the nation, is curtailing all activities today for the 12 - hour North American Air Defense Command Operation Sky Shield II exercise.

All non - military aircrafts will remain grounded from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. The same period will be observed in other section of the north American continent but may be designated differently according to various daylight and standard times.

Provisions for emergency flight operations required in the interest of health or safety have been made. Such flights will be handled by FAA's air traffic control facilities on an advisory basis.

SIXTH ANNUAL

Columbia's Art Festival Today

COLUMBIA (Special) — Today is the day for art lovers in this area, as the sixth annual Caldwell Parish Art Festival gets underway at 9:30 a.m.

Festival co - chairman Mrs. Katherine Arnold said that the festival is unusual in that "it originates in a parish whose population is less than 10,000 and whose parish seat, Columbia, is less than 2,000.

Last year there were 3,000 guests and participants. Another unusual feature, she said, is that it has a day - long program featuring current interest, book, music, drama and the arts.

Theme this year is the Civil War Centennial.

"The whole community plays a part and after five years of experience, staging, refreshments, the style show, sound arrangements, registration, publications and the band concert progress smoothly without the assistance of the chairman," festival officials said.

With ribbon for prizes and no hanging fees, each artist has a one - man show.

Civil War battles, Louisiana heritage from Ante Bellum days, and Cajun dialect will be interspersed with music and art, old and new. An exhibit of centennial herilooms will be an attraction.

Park Bandstand To Be Donated Here On Sunday

The Monroe Jaycees will donate a bandstand, which they built in Frosythe Park, to the city in ceremonies to be held Sunday.

Jack Murphy will present the bandstand to Mayor W. L. Howard, who will accept in the name of the citizens of the community and the Neville Concert Band, under the direction of Herbert Cathwright, will prsent an hour long program, beginning at 2 p.m.

To help pay for the remaining construction cost a small section of reserved seats, at 50 cents a seat, will be set aside.

Murphy, chairman of the July 4, Jaycee project, noted the need for a stand large enough to hold any of the local bands to give a concert. His idea to build the bandstand was endorsed and supported by the 12 man board of directors of the Monroe Jaycees and the membership at large.

Wells and Parker drew the plans and local merchants who were interested in the project donated some materials and funds. The city council gave final approval of the bandstand's construction.

Services were volunteered by a local carpenter, R. E. Poole, who supervised the work which was done by the Jaycees and their friends during their spare time over the past one and a half months.

The bandstand measures 45 feet by 15 feet and is large enough to accommodate an 80 piece concert band.

House Tour Is Scheduled

RUSTON (Special) — The Ruston Quota Club will sponsor an open door house tour Sunday, Dec. 17 as part of the Yuletide season.

Six of Ruston's new homes will be on exhibit to the public through the event, pushed as a fund - raising project for the club, whose proceeds will go to philanthropic uses, aiding hard - of - hearing children of the parish.

Mrs. Elaine Taylor, president, said Mrs. Eugenia Dawson, immediate past president, will be chairman for the event. Mrs. Edyth Bice heads the committee on house selection, and her coworkers are Mrs. Sallie Beasley and Mrs. Lois Peden.

COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures closed $1 a bale lower to 65 cents higher Friday.

Current crop months were active and under pressure of commission house liquidation and increased hedge selling. The latter reflected the increasing movement of the new cotton crop.

Nearby October expired today on a final price of 34.44 cents a pound, up 45 cents a bale from the previous close.

New crop months reponded to a slight cut in the 1962 national cotton acreage allotment from the 1961 figure, with small gains for the day.

Wheat finished mixed with the neaby contracts losing ground and the deferred deliveries advancing fractions.

Lack of hedge selling in beans in the face of the largest crop in history was attributed to the reluctance of farmers to market freshly harvested beans at current prices.

At the close of trading wheat was ½ higher to ⅜ lower, December $2.04⅛-04; corn ⅛-⅜ lower, December $1.10¾-11; oats ¼ higher to ½ lower, December 69⅛-68¾; rye ¼-1 cent higher, December $1.37½, and soybeans ⅞-1⅜ higher, November $2.40⅞-41.

Louisiana Oil Allowable To Remain Same

BATON ROUGE (AP)—The Loisiana's Daily Oil production allowable for November and December will remain unchanged at 1,012,757 barrels, except for a small conservation commissioner James Gill said Friday.

The current September-October total was an increase over the July-August total of 991,411 barrels.

The exact figure for November-December will be announced around Oct. 23, Gill said.

His statement came after a New Orleans hearing at which purchasers made nominations totaling 987,469 barrels a day, an increase of 50,972 barrels. The figure approximates Louisiana's present rate of production at the present depth bracket formula, which is 30 per cent of that in effect in March 1953, Gill said.

"It is our feeling that this increase in nominations did not reflect an increase in actual needs or crude oil," Gill said. "Rather it indicated that the purchasing companies have been more realistic in presenting current needs.

"We do not feel that an increase in allowables at this time is justified."

Gill said the national crude oil stocks were 251,981,000 barrels, slightly below that of two months ago. Louisiana's crude oil stocks totaled 20,340,000 barrels, slightly less than a million barrels below two months ago.

Six Injured In Calhoun Truck Crash

Six persons were injured—none of them believed seriously—in the crash of two pick-up trucks Friday about a mile north of Calhoun on Louisiana 151. Four of them were taken to Ruston Hospital, while two were reported to have received only first aid on the spot.

State Police identified the injured as Herbert J. Jordan, 42, driver of one of the trucks; passengers, Jerry Jordan, 12, and Lloyd Frost, 62, all of Downsville. John Huey, 59, driver of the other vehicle, charged with reckless driving; and passengers, including his wife, Gelphie Huey, 51; Lillian Sue Huey, 15, and James Oliver Huey, 16, all of Bernice.

Taken to Ruston Hospital were Huey and his family. Extent of their injuries was not available last night but none were believed in serious condition.

Jordan alone escaped without injury. His son and Frost required only brief treatment at the scene, according to investigators.

The crash occurred around 3:40 p.m. when Huey, going north on 151 attempted a left turn, swinging into the path of Jordan.

State Solon Protests On Texas Rice

BATON ROUGE (AP) — State Sen. Lee Firmin of Franklin Friday protested use of Texas parboiled rice in the Louisiana school program when "Louisiana is one of the leading rice producers in the United States."

The senator wrote the state education department it had been brought to his attention that the Texas rice had been alloted for use in the Louisiana program.

T. E. Kirklin, director of the food distribution program for the state Department of Education, was out of town and unavailable for comment.

But Miss Evelyn Terrell, supervisor of the school lunch program, said the department has nothing to do with the purchase of commodities.

Surplus commodities are bought by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, she said, and are offered to the parish and city school boards free for their lunch programs.

"They have an opportunity to use it or reject it," Miss Terrell said.

She said Kirklin's department had the job to "notify each city and parish school board about the quantity of commodities. We have to submit the list to the school boards. The department has nothing to do with the purchase of commodities.

BY GRAND JURY

3 Indicted For Capital Crimes

The Ouachita Parish Grand Jury sounded the alarm bell on boat and auto accident fatalities and indicted three men on death penalty charges Friday.

Two of the men face trial on murder charges and one on an aggravated rape charge.

Maximum penalty on conviction is death.

Cecil Eugne Cullipher, 24-year-old southside resident charged with the fatal stabbing of Lealis L. Hale, 59, Monroe businessman on October 3.

Leroy Wiley, 28, Monroe Negro charged with stabbing his wife, Rosetta, after an argument September 20.

Charged with aggravated rape of a juvenile is Calvin Coleman Jr., 20, local Negro.

Three other men were indicted. The jury investigated 17 cases and returned 11 no true bills.

Indicated are:

Beaulah Williams, 60, Negro charged with manslaughter in the death of her husband, Ike Williams, June 7.

Jessie C. Rogers, 313 Oaklawn Dr., charged with negligent homicide of Emmett Dortch, retired fireman and taxicab driver fatally injured in an auto collision.

Lawrence Holmes, Jr., 28, Negro, 716 Powell Ave., charged with negligent homicide in the deaths of a teenager, Bobby Lynn Hendrix, and Mrs. Barbara Little.

Holmes was driver of one of the cars in a fatal collision on April 29.

"We have investigated an unusually large number of negligent homicides," reported the jury, "involving the loss of life of 10 persons arising out of automobile and boat accidents since May, 1961.

"While the majority of these accidents did not involve criminal negligence, all of them could have been avoided by action on the part of some individual.

"We feel it our duty to call this situation to the attention of the public and caution all persons to more carefully supervise small children while using streets and roads.

"We urge strict law enforcement for both vehicles and pedestrians in our cities and on the open highways."

Hugh B. Balfour, ward five businessman and jury foreman, read the report in Fourth District Court before Judge Mack Barham.

Exiles Fear Castro Plots Fake Invasion

By FRANCIS L. McCARTHY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Diplomatic dispatches from Cuba said Friday Premier Fidel Castro may be plotting a fake invasion to "liquidate" imprisoned leaders of the unsuccessful April Pig's Bay attack.

Cuban exiles revealed they have ben warned of the possibility of such an intrigue in messages from Havana from friendly Latin American diplomats.

One such message quoted Castro as having told its author there would be an "invasion" within 10 days and from three directions.

The warning coincided with reports of a huge buildup of Castro armed strength, Havana Radio warnings that invasion is "imminent" and an official alert of Cuba's 300,000-man army.

Cuban Revolutionary Council President Jose Miro Cardona said he fears a "fake" invasion to give Castro a pretext to execute the men whose lives he now is obliged to respect under international law.

In Washington, however, informed sources said a phony action more likely would be aimed at "backing up" Cuba's recent United Nations charge of "aggression" against the United States and to divert national attention from the failing economy which is due to worsen because of drought.

Miro said it is "obvious" no invasion of Cuba is in the offing. He recalled the April attack was "forecast" by U.S. news media weeks in advance. It is well known exiles are not in position for an "immediate" armed attack against Castro, he said.

Earlier this week, spokesmen Castro of training invasion troops flatly denied the allegations.

Sources in Washington confirmed Gander, Nfld., reports that Soviet Russia is daily moving "large numbers" of military and technical personnel by air between Prague, Czechoslovakia, and Havana.

South Locks Are Favored

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Concordia Parish Farm Bureau board of directors has gone on record as favoring a south of Jonesville location for proposed locks and dam in the Black and Ouachita rivers.

Directors said in a resolution that a five-parish area of Concordia, Tensas, Franklin, Catahoula and LaSalle, would benefit from the south of Jonesville location.

There has been a good deal of controversy over whether the project should be located south or north of Jonesville.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures closed $1 a bale lower to 65 cents higher Friday.

Current crop months were active and under pressure of commission house liquidation and increased hedge selling. The latter reflected the increasing movement of the new cotton crop.

Nearby October expired today on a final price of 34.44 cents a pound, up 45 cents a bale from the previous close.

New crop months reponded to a slight cut in the 1962 national cotton acreage allotment from the 1961 figure, with small gains for the day.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

STOCKS EASIER

NEW YORK—Stocks were easier in moderate trading. Tobaccos and finance companies were particularly weak, losing 1 to 3 points. Industrials were mixed but mostly on the downside.

DEFENSE CONTRACTS

NEW YORK—Dr. Simon Ramo of Thompson-Ramo - Wooldridge said Friday that companies are putting more time and effort in landing large defense contracts in the space field than in fulfilling them.

CUT CEMENT PRICE

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Trinity Portland Cement division of General Portland Cement Co. has cut its price for cement delivered in the North-Central Texas area by 12 cents a barrel, it was announced Friday.

ALUMINUM CARS

BESSEMER, Ala. (UPI) — The first of 40 new aluminum covered hopper cars was delivered here Friday to the Louisville Railroad as a prelude to the carrier's initial use of lightweight rolling stock. The cars are being produced at Pullman-Standard's Bessemer Shops, utilizing aluminum plate, extrusions, and castings supplied by Aluminum Co. of America.

GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Continued lack of hedging pressure and rains that held up harvesting in the Midwest attracted support to soybean futures on the Board of Trade Friday.

Wheat finished mixed with the neaby contracts losing ground and the deferred deliveries advancing fractions.

Lack of hedge selling in beans in the face of the largest crop in history was attributed to the reluctance of farmers to market freshly harvested beans at current prices.

At the close of trading wheat was ½ higher to ⅜ lower, December $2.04⅛-04; corn ⅛-⅜ lower, December $1.10¾-11; oats ¼ higher to ½ lower, December 69⅛-68¾; rye ¼-1 cent higher, December $1.37½, and soybeans ⅞-1⅜ higher, November $2.40⅞-41.

Louisiana Oil Allowable To Remain Same

BATON ROUGE (AP)—The Louisiana's Daily Oil production allowable for November and December will remain unchanged at 1,-012,757 barrels, except for a small conservation commissioner James Gill said Friday.

The current September-October total was an increase over the July-August total of 991,411 barrels.

The exact figure for November-December will be announced around Oct. 23, Gill said.

His statement came after a New Orleans hearing at which purchasers made nominations totaling 987,469 barrels a day, an increase of 50,972 barrels. The figure approximates Louisiana's present rate of production at the present depth bracket formula, which is 30 per cent of that in effect in March 1953, Gill said.

"It is our feeling that this increase in nominations did not reflect an increase in actual needs or crude oil," Gill said. "Rather it indicated that the purchasing companies have been more realistic in presenting current needs.

"We do not feel that an increase in allowables at this time is justified."

Gill said the national crude oil stocks were 251,981,000 barrels, slightly below that of two months ago. Louisiana's crude oil stocks totaled 20,340,000 barrels, slightly less than a million barrels below two months ago.

Six Injured In Calhoun Truck Crash

Six persons were injured—none of them believed seriously—in the crash of two pick-up trucks Friday about a mile north of Calhoun on Louisiana 151. Four of them were taken to Ruston Hospital, while two were reported to have received only first aid on the spot.

State Police identified the injuried as Herbert J. Jordan, 42, driver of one of the trucks; passengers, Jerry Jordan, 12, and Lloyd Frost, 62, all of Downsville; John Huey, 59, driver of the other vehicle, charged with reckless driving; and passengers, including his wife, Gelphie Huey, 51; Lillian Sue Huey, 15, and James Oliver Huey, 16, all of Bernice.

Taken to Ruston Hospital were Huey and his family. Extent of their injuries was not available last night but none were believed in serious condition.

Jordan alone escaped without injury. His son and Frost required only brief treatment at the scene, according to investigators.

The crash occurred around 3:40 p.m. when Huey, going north on 151 attempted a left turn, swinging into the path of Jordan.

State Solon Protests On Texas Rice

BATON ROUGE (AP) — State Sen. Lee Firmin of Franklin Friday protested use of Texas parboiled rice in the Louisiana school program when "Louisiana is one of the leading rice producers in the United States."

The senator wrote the state education department it had been brought to his attention that the Texas rice had been alloted for use in the Louisiana program.

T. E. Kirklin, director of the food distribution program for the state Department of Education, was out of town and unavailable for comment.

But Miss Evelyn Terrell, supervisor of the school lunch program, said the department has nothing to do with the purchase of commodities.

Surplus commodities are bought by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, she said, and are offered to the parish and city school boards free for their lunch programs.

"They have an opportunity to use it or reject it," Miss Terrell said.

She said Kirklin's department had the job to "notify each city and parish school board about the quantity of commodities. We have to submit the list to the school boards. The department has nothing to do with the purchase of commodities.

South Locks Are Favored

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Concordia Parish Farm Bureau board of directors has gone on record as favoring a south of Jonesville location for proposed locks and dam in the Black and Ouachita rivers.

Directors said in a resolution that a five-parish area of Concordia, Tensas, Franklin, Catahoula and LaSalle, would benefit from the south of Jonesville location.

There has been a good deal of controversy over whether the project should be located south or north of Jonesville.

THIS WAS THE CIVIL WAR

By MERTON T. AKERS
United Press International

The battle of Ball's Bluff was a minor disaster with major after-effects.

Out of this engagement, Oct. 21, 1861, about 30 miles up the Potomac River from Washington, came the Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War, a congressional body dominated by Radical Republicans, which dogged President Lincoln throughout the Civil War and meddled extensively in military affairs.

The battle was another Union defeat.

Brig. Gen. Charles F. Stone, who had organized the Washington forces in early '61 before Lincoln's inauguration, in October was commanding a division on the Maryland shore of the Potomac opposite Leesburg, Va.

He was ordered by Maj. Gen. George B. McLellan, commanding the Army of the Potomac, to make "a slight demonstration" in hopes of forcing the Confederates out of Leesburg.

General Stone carried this out on Oct. 20.

One of his scouts reported seeing a small Confederate camp about a mile inland on the Virginia side of the river.

Stone, without any further firm orders from McClellan, determined to throw some troops across the river to feel out the enemy.

For this expedition Stone turned the field command over to Col. Edward D. Baker, a senator recently turned soldier and a close friend of President Lincoln. Stone remained at Edwards Ferry on the Virginia side below Ball's Bluff. There he directed the overall operation.

With more valor than military sense, Baker led parts of four regiments — his own, the 71st Pennsylvania (called the 1st California in his honor), the 15th and 20th Massachusetts and the 42nd New York — across the Potomac a few at a time in small boats. The trooops landed piecemeal at Ball's Bluff, a 70-foot high, almost sheer cliff rising from the edge of the river.

The Union forces, with two pieces of artillery, went into action a company or so at a time. They met the 13th, 17th and 18th Mississippi and the 8th Virginia under Nathan G. (Shanks) Evans, who had won a measure of fame at Bull Run (Manassas), and who gained a brigadiership for this battle.

One Federal contingent pushed forward about a mile to within sight of Leesburg toward the camp the scout had reported. They found no camp and concluded the scout had mistaken a ground and tree formation for tents in the partial light. No Confederates were in sight.

But about this time the advance Union force was attacked in strength by the Confederates and withdrew a short way to a better defensive position. Other Federal troops were advanced a few at a time and were fed into the battle. The Confederate fire was heavy and the Federal line broken. Troops were routed and swept back to the bluff with the choice of capture or swimming the river back to Maryland.

Union casualties were 49 killed, 158 wounded and 714 missing or captured. One of the dead was Colonel Baker. The wounded included a young lieutenant, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., who recovered, became a famous Supreme Court justice and lived until the 1930's.

The Confederate loss was 33 killed, 115 wounded and 1 missing.

Lincoln was at the War Department telegraph office when word came that Colonel Baker had been killed.

"Five minutes passed," a newspaper correspondent wrote "and then Mr. Lincoln, unattended, with bowed head and tears rolling down his furrowed cheeks, his breast heaving, passed through the room. He almost fell as he passed into the street."

Baker and Lincoln had been close, first in Illinois and later in Washington. The Lincoln's second child, who died in Springfield, was named for Baker. Later, after a time in California, Baker at the direction of Lincoln had gone to Oregon and organized the Republican and dissident Democrats against Sen. Joseph Lane, a secessionist, and had beaten him for the Senate.

But the real scapegoat of Ball's Bluff was General Stone.

As soon as Congress met a few weeks after the battle, indignation ran high over Baker's death and the obvious bungling of the operation. The first move of the politicians was to form the Joint Committee for the Conduct of the War. Headed by Gen. Benjamin F. Wade of Ohio, the committee included Sen. Zachariah Chandler, Michigan, both Radical Republicans; Sen. Andrew Johnson of Tennessee who had remained loyal and who would succeed Lincoln as President; and Reps. D. W. Gooch, Mass., John Covode, Pennsylvania; George A. Julian, Indiana, and M. F. Odell, New York. Covode and Julian were radicals.

The committee started work at once in a basement room in the Capitol to investigate Ball's Bluff. The hearings ran into 1862.

At 1 a.m. Feb. 9, 1862, Stone was arrested in Washington by the commander of the provost guard and sent to Fort Lafayette in New York harbor.

There Stone was kept in military confinement for 189 days — until August 16, 1862.

During these six months no charges were filed against Stone — none ever were — and even yet there is uncertainty over who ordered his arrest, the committee or the secretary of war.

Stone appeared before the committee for questioning. His testimony did not satisfy the committee.

The nearest to any formal charges against Stone were published in Moore's "Rebellion Record" on 1862. It said the charges were:

"First, for misbehaviour at the battle of Ball's Bluff.

"Second, for holding correspondence with the enemy before and since the battle . . . and receiving rebel officers in his camp.

"Third, for treacherously suffering the enemy to build a fort since the battle . . . without molestation.

"Fourth, for a treacherous design to expose his forces to capture and destruction . . . under pretense of orders from the commanding general (McClellan) which had not been given."

Stone conceded before the committee that McClellan had not ordered the crossing of the river, only "a slight demonstration." Otherwise he stood pat on his actions.

He was released from Fort Lafayette only after Congress passed a law in the summer of 1862 prohibiting a soldier being held more than 30 days without filing charges.

Stone served briefly in 1863 and '64. He was reduced to his permanent rank, colonel, and eventually resigned. He went to Egypt and became chief of staff of the Egyptian army and ended his career as an engineer working on the Statue of Liberty, in sight of his former prison.

Union soldiers in the Civil War were issued a knife, fork, tin plate and tin cup as mess gear. But not until 1863 did regulations call for a spoon.

Nearly 200,000 Negro troops were recruited by the North in the Civil War and organized into 145 infantry regiments, 7 cavalry, lery and 1 engineer.

Col. Ely S. Parker, General Grant's military secretary late in the Civil War, was a full-blooded Seneca Indian and a sachem of his tribe.

FLEE EAST GERMANY

TRELLEBORG, Sweden (AP)—An 84-year-old man escaped from East Germany Thursday night in a fishing boat with his son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter. They rested here before going on to West Germany.

The old man, who said he came originally from Lithuania, told reporters it was his fourth flight from communism.

Ford, Union Signing Of Pact Delayed

DETROIT (AP)—This was supposed to be the day Ford and the United Auto Workers Union signed their new three-year national labor agreement.

Top-level negotiators agreed to terms Wednesday.

The union's International Executive Board approved it Wednesday night.

The union's Ford National Council endorsed it Thursday.

The signing was set for 1 p.m. Friday.

Press and radio were notified. All were ready to take in the scene at the English Room of the Detroit Leland Hotel.

The participants—Walter P. Reuther, union president; and Malcolm L. Denise, Ford's vice president-labor relations—were reported ready along with their full bargaining committees.

The bulky documents, dozens of pages thick, needed only their signatures.

The signing hour came and went.

Then came the word—postponed. The official reason: Technicians for both sides have been too busy to complete all of the formal language.

A spokesman said the date on the calendar—Friday the 13th—played no part in the postponement. But when the contract gets signed it will bear another date.

Individual committees spent the day trying to settle 21 local plant strikes involving 43,180 workers. These must end before Ford can return to production. Ford has been idled by strikes since Oct. 3.

THIS WAS THE CIVIL WAR

By MERTON T. AKERS
United Press International

The battle of Ball's Bluff was a minor disaster with major after-effects.

Out of this engagement, Oct. 21, 1861, about 30 miles up the Potomac River from Washington, came the Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War, a congressional body dominated by Radical Republicans, which dogged President Lincoln throughout the Civil War and meddled extensively in military affairs.

The battle was another Union defeat.

Brig. Gen. Charles F. Stone, who had organized the Washington forces in early '61 before Lincoln's inauguration, in October was commanding a division on the Maryland shore of the Potomac opposite Leesburg, Va.

He was ordered by Maj. Gen. George B. McLellan, commanding the Army of the Potomac, to make "a slight demonstration" in hopes of forcing the Confederates out of Leesburg.

General Stone carried this out on Oct. 20.

One of his scouts reported seeing a small Confederate camp about a mile inland on the Virginia side of the river.

Stone, without any further firm orders from McClellan, determined to throw some troops across the river to feel out the ènemy.

For this expedition Stone turned the field command over to Col. Edward D. Baker, a senator recently turned soldier and a close friend of President Lincoln. Stone remained at Edwards Ferry on the Virginia side below Ball's Bluff. There he directed the overall operation.
